Dear Friends in Christ,

According to Latin missionary accounts sent back to Manila, a wonderful saint declared these words upon his death: "Ego Catholicus sum et animo prompto paratoque pro Deo mortem obibo. Si mille vitas haberem, cunctas ei offerrem." In English this may be rendered: "I am a Catholic and wholeheartedly do accept death for the Lord; If I had a thousand lives, all these I shall offer to Him." This may have been offered in Tagalog or Filipino as: "Isa akong Katoliko at buong-pusong tinatanggap ang kamatayan para sa Panginoon. Kung ako man ay may isanlibong buhay, lahat ng iyon ay iaalay ko sa Kanya." As we stand in utter horror at the suffering of the Filipino people because of the typhoon, we see a beacon of hope from this beautiful, very Catholic country that has given a great deal to the Church and even to our parish. Saint Lorenzo Ruiz, quoted above, died for the faith. He died a horrible death at the hands of the Japanese to whom he had gone to be a missionary. Wikipedia recounts that on 27 September 1637, Ruiz and his companions were taken to the Nishizaka Hill, where they were tortured by being hung upside down over a pit. This form of torture was known as tsurushi in Japanese. The method was supposed to be extremely painful: though the victim was bound, one hand is always left free so that victims may be able to signal that they recanted, and they would be freed. Ruiz would not renounce Christianity and died from blood loss and suffocation. His body was cremated and his ashes thrown into the sea. He was canonized as a martyr for the faith on the 18th of October (two days after the feast day of Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque!) and his feast day is celebrated on September 28th. This typhoon reminds us how our lives can change in an instant and that we must always live fully in the Lord each day. Jesus is the one constant and we must refrain from putting Him off for another day. May St. Lorenzo pray for the great Filipino people! Santo Nino have mercy on them!

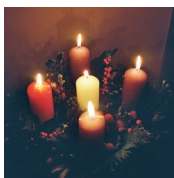

In Christ,
Father Szolack

Family Prayer Crucifix for Vocations

Every Sunday at 10 AM Mass, we will see a family receive a Crucifix to take home for the week to pray for vocations to the Holy Priesthood and Religious Life. It is contained in a beautiful handcrafted box which also serves as a stand for the Crucifix. Prayers to be used by the host family are on a laminated program in the box. Every weekend the host family will return the Crucifix in procession. A new host family will receive it at the end of Mass. Sister Vilma is the crucifix for vocations coordinator. Let us pray for holy vocations to religious life from our parish. If you are praying over a possible calling, please speak to Father Szolack.

Lighting of Advent Wreath

If you and your family would like to light the Advent Wreath at one of the Weekend Masses at either church of Infant Jesus Parish, please call the rectory at 848-0047 to be scheduled. It is a beautiful symbol to see families share the light of Christ as we prepare for the holy season of Christmas.

We are gearing up for our Thanksgiving food drive when we make food baskets for those less fortunate than ourselves. We are beginning our food collection now and will continue until November 24th, when we will make and distribute the baskets. Food items that we will need for the baskets are Turkeys, canned yams, cranberry sauce, stuffing, canned vegetables, fruit, chicken, tuna, peanut butter & jelly, pancake mix & syrup, spam, soup, pasta & sauce, mac & cheese, cereal, saltine & graham crackers, & granola bars. Toiletries such as toothpaste, toothbrushes, shampoo, deodorant, & body soap as well as cleaning supplies are also welcome. If you choose to donate a turkey please bring it on November 24th. Please do not bring it ahead of time and leave it in the back of the church as we have nowhere to store it. If you cannot bring the turkey on the 24th please call and leave a message at the rectory and we will arrange for someone to pick it up from you. Volunteers to help fill the baskets and deliver the baskets are also most welcome. This is also an excellent opportunity for students to add to their community service hours. We begin sorting food and assembling baskets at 8:30 AM on November 24th. Thank you for the kindness and generosity that you always show as you answer our every plea. May you all have a blessed and joyous holiday season.

CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE/WREATH - Because of the way the holidays fall this year we had to start our Christmas Giving drive a week early. This project is such a huge undertaking for us that we have to take advantage of every bit of time available to us. Please choose a tag or two & purchase and wrap the gift for your chosen child. Attach the tag to your gift and return it by the 15th of December when we will distribute the gifts. St. John Vianney parishioners please return your gifts by December 14th at the 6:00 PM Mass. Thank you for helping to make a Christmas for children that may otherwise go without. Their families are extremely grateful for the love & kindness you show to them.

Word of God

Proclaiming the Word of God is an essential part of the Holy Mass. Anyone who would like to serve as a lector may call the Rectory for information. This ministry will assist your own love for the Word of God.

WOMEN'S CLUB

All are welcome to attend our next meeting, on the third Tuesday of the month, November 19th. At this meeting we will have a special craft session for the upcoming Christmas Bazaar with the guidance of Joan Badie. Gina McCurdy will be coordinating the making of cones with hot chocolate mix, marshmallows and ribbon. Joan Bullock will preside over the pine cone assorted bags and baskets. You'll also enjoy the pies and thanksgiving desserts that are our November meeting tradition. Thanks for your support. Our bazaar follows on November 23, so your help in crafts is greatly appreciated. I hope to see everyone who can make it that night. Please remember when cleaning out your closets to donate to the Treasure Attic table. Anyone that does crafts and would like to donate for the Craft table, we will be taking donations on Thursday and Friday nights, November 21 & 22; or you can call Helen Buehler at 856-468-5106 to make arrangements.
