GOD BLESS AMERICA!

God bless our men and women who put their lives on the line to preserve freedom around the world. We thank God for our good fortune to be citizens of the USA. We continue to pray for our men and women overseas especially, Justin Gousha, Raymond Henry, Shawn Jarrell, Becky & Nick Johnson, Mark LaGrossa, Brian Simmons, Rob Solome, Sarah Turse, Charity Winkler, Robert Wittiw, Kevin Beebe, Jr., Michael Ekimogolu, Chris Fusco, Maj. Chris Pajak, Charity Winkler, Brian Schwartz, and Josh Little. If someone has returned home, we ask that you let us know. Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen †††

Dear Friends in Christ,

While everyone gears up for Halloween (my least favorite celebration of the year) the Church is preparing for one of her holy days of obligation, namely, All Saints Day on November 1st. It is unbelievable when people call celebrities heroes. Recently, I heard Muhammad Ali referred to as a “hero.” Certainly, I would not take anything away from his ability as a boxer, but a hero? No, I consider our men and women who represent our armed forces as heroes or policemen or firemen. I am sorry, a movie actor is not a hero. The Church celebrates true heroes every day in the saints. The unbelievable courage of the North American Martyrs or the selflessness of Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati calls one to proclaim a hero. Blessed Teresa of Calcutta, leaving a comfortable life to work in the slums...there is a heroine. Heroes are to be not only lauded, but imitated. Get some good books on the saints or read about them on line. The Catholic Church is a treasure trove of men and women who ran the race and crossed the finish line to Heaven. They are our examples, our intercessors and our evidence to the world that living the Gospel heroically will bring about what Saint Irenaeus once said, “The glory of God is man fully alive.” The saints truly lived the Lord in this life and continue to do so before the Heavenly Throne.

God bless you,
Father Szolack

Family Prayer Crucifix for Vocations

Every Sunday at 10 AM Mass, we will see a family receive a Crucifix to take home for the week to pray for vocations to the Holy Priesthood and Religious Life. It is contained in a beautiful handcrafted box which also serves as a stand for the Crucifix. Prayers to be used by the host family are on a laminated program in the box. Every weekend the host family will return the Crucifix in procession. A new host family will receive it at the end of Mass. Sister Vilma is the crucifix for vocations coordinator. Let us pray for holy vocations to religious life from our parish. If you are praying over a possible calling, please speak to Father Szolack.

Oct. 27 - Nov. 3: The Helder Family

COME LET US ADORE HIM

If you are scheduled for adoration and cannot attend, please try to find a replacement or contact Jody at 848-3239 or the rectory.
