SANCTUARY LAMP

The Sanctuary lamp at St. Margaret Church is burning in loving memory of James Fitzpatrick
req. by his wife & son.

Dear Friends in Christ,

In Saint Paul's Second Letter to the Corinthians (3:15), he writes, "Test yourselves to see if you are in the faith; examine yourselves! Or do you not recognize this about yourselves that Jesus Christ is in you – unless indeed you fail the test?" Would we pass the test? Are we truly men and women of faith? How often we can take our faith for granted! I do not think you would be reading this bulletin letter were you not a believer. There are many who find the faith intriguing though not having been born into it. Some people, sitting in the pew next to us, may not be a Roman Catholic, yet they attend Mass regularly. It is fascinating to see people who are of another Christian denomination or not even baptized more faithful than those raised in the faith. One of the reasons that the RCIA program is so public is because it also is meant to remind all of us that we must choose to follow Jesus every day. It is not a one shot deal, but each day that the Lord gives us the opportunity to say to Him, "Lord, to whom shall we go, You alone have the words of eternal life." I will follow! This year, once again, people will present themselves to begin the process of becoming Catholic. The Lord will put in their heart the desire to embrace the "fullness of the faith." At first, they may want to become Catholic for their future spouse, a husband or wife, for their children. After time, they will see how much they have been missing. O, the glory of the Mass and the reception of Holy Communion! If you know someone who is not Catholic pray for them and encourage them to enter the one, true faith. What a wondrous blessing to be Catholic We should pray for the conversation of all. The great English martyr, Saint Margaret Clitherow as she was being pressed to death for being a Catholic "was to pray aloud for the Catholic Church, the Pope, and especially for Elizabeth [the first], Queen of England, that God turn her [Elizabeth] to the Catholic faith. For I wish as much good to Her Majesty's soul as to my own". As she died Margaret cried out: "Jesu, Jesu, Jesu, have mercy on me!" Now, there was a woman who did not take her faith for granted.

God bless you,
Father Szolack

GOD BLESS AMERICA!

God bless our men and women who put their lives on the line to preserve freedom around the world. We thank God for our good fortune to be citizens of the USA. We continue to pray for our men and women overseas especially, Justin Gousha, Shawn Jarrell, Becky & Nick Johnson, Martin Renzi, Brian Simmons, Rob Solome, Sarah Turse, Michael Ekimogolu, Chris Fusco, Charity Winkler, Brian Schwartz, and Josh Little. If someone has returned home, we ask that you let us know. Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen †††

Infant Jesus Parish Sunday School

This is an opportunity for children ages 3 through kindergarten to actively learn about Jesus at their level through Bible Stories, Music and Crafts. Classes are held during the 10:00 AM Mass at St. Margaret's School.

First Class is Sunday, Sept. 14th. If you can't make the first class you are welcome to start at any time. Registration form is available on parish web site or at the rectory. Any questions please call Ms. Janet at the rectory (856-848-0047).

Thank you for continuing to donate school supplies for children in need. The excitement of the beginning of a new school year is increased with new school supplies! We will continue to collect backpacks, notebooks, pencils, pens, crayons, rulers and paper.

As you know donations to our pantry are always welcome at any time throughout the year. At the moment, we especially need pasta and sauce and cereal. We are also in need of personal care items such as shampoo, soap, deodorant, toothpaste etc. as well as laundry detergent, dish soap, bath tissue, Fantastik-type cleaner. Please keep us in mind as you do your grocery shopping and remember that we are called by Jesus to care for the poor and those less fortunate than ourselves. We are so appreciative of our parishioners for always answering this call with such generosity and enthusiasm. Thank you all and God bless you.

RCIA

We - both clergy and laity - as disciples of Jesus Christ in Infant Jesus Parish all share a common twofold mission: to be faithful followers of Jesus and to then "Go, therefore, and make disciples." Often what you can do, no one else can.

Do you know anyone who has never been Baptized or who for some reason never received all of their Sacraments?

Perhaps you know someone who is not Catholic but wants to be?

Would you like to help others enter into the Catholic Church?

Go, therefore, and ask. RCIA is the process by which our parish welcomes and initiates people into the fullness of Christian life in the Catholic Church. RCIA at Infant Jesus Parish is an exciting and growing ministry. This September we are beginning a year-round RCIA process that will enable us to better welcome and serve persons in all circumstances.

Anyone interested in either becoming Catholic or completing Sacraments should contact Fr. Chris Mann at 856-848-0047.

Those wanting to join the RCIA Team should also contact Fr. Chris to apply. There are many ways to serve in RCIA, so do not hesitate to inquire. Many hands make light work.

REMEMBER:

A vibrant Catholic parish is one that always invites newcomers and welcomes all people to enter into an ever deepening life of faith, both as individuals and as members of the Christian community. All of us must do our part whether it be from the pews, from the pulpit—or—by promoting and supporting the RCIA process. None of us has it all together, but together we have it all!
