Dear Friends in Christ,

When at a wedding or funeral, you may hear the priest say these or similar words: "For all those who are Catholic and are in a state of grace, that is a regular attendee at Mass, you may now come forward for Holy Communion." I have had people say, "Oh, that is so uninviting and unnecessary." In reality, it is for the proper reception of Holy Communion and out of charity for non-Catholic guests. When performing a wedding at Saint John Vianney Church, I saw someone sitting in the pew holding the Blessed Host. The man next to him snatched the Host and placed it in his own mouth. Upon questioning, the man who received the Host said that his friend was Jewish and simply went up and took the Holy Sacrament like the others. He did not know. The Catholic realized he needed to consume the Host. I had neglected to make the announcement I mention above. This would have saved our Jewish guest any embarrassment or confusion. Recently, a Host was found near the Saint Margaret Mary shrine. It had been partly consumed. To one's horror, who knows what went on there? A communicant should receive the Sacred Host directly on the tongue or if receiving in the hand, they should step to the side and consume the Host immediately. They should not carry the Sacrament away with them and "pop" the Host into their mouth as they walk to their seat! The Church's teaching continues to be that those who may present themselves for Holy Communion must be Catholic and in a state of grace. Otherwise, we receive Holy Communion sacrilegiously. Should one miss Mass unnecessarily or commit a mortal sin (serious matter, sufficient reflection and full consent of the will), he should confess his sins in the Sacrament of Penance before receiving. Even should a Catholic be unable to receive Holy Communion, they are still obligated to attend Holy Mass. This is the official teaching and when you hear an announcement at a wedding or funeral, please do not see it as unwelcoming and inconsiderate, but rather, charitable and respectful to the Most Blessed Sacrament, the Real Presence of Jesus.

God bless you,
Father Szolack

Why not try the Weekly Socials with the MOM's Group?

The Ministry of Motherhood (MOMs Group) is starting their weekly socials up again through the summer. The MOMs Group is a fantastic opportunity to fellowship and build relationships with other Catholic moms in our parish. We'll be holding playdates in different homes - BIG playdates for the kids and grown up time for the moms--each week discussing aspects of the intersections of mommyhood and faith. On a monthly basis, there will be evening meet-ups without the kids around a firepit, in a restaurant, etc. as well as trips to the park, zoo, farm, etc. MOMs will meet on Mondays through the summer from 11 AM-2PM. Contact Jenny Butler at 203-430-6013 or email jendanbutler@yahoo.com or to add your name to the email listing for updates and meeting locations.

Dear Youth of the Parish,

Our last event, Bingo & Movie Night, was a success. We had a great time playing Bingo and watching Soul Surfer. As the summer continues, I want to encourage you to spend some extra time in prayer. Get to know Jesus by spending time with Him. Invite Him into your daily life. He longs to give you His Heart! Just be with Him in silence; all He wants is a glance from you. All middle school (6th-8th grade) and high school teens are welcome to attend. Below is our event schedule:

- Sun. July 27th – Messy Day 7 - 9 PM at Vianney Center. (Be prepared to get messy – pie throwing will be involved)
- Sun. Aug. 3rd – Open Mic Night (Please contact me if you would like to sing/play an instrument/perform a skit/recite poetry/anything creative! Coffee and food will be available.)

For those of you looking to go deeper into your faith, you are welcome to attend any of our weekly Lead Team meetings. This summer we are focusing on establishing a loving, knowing relationship with the King of the Universe through experiencing regular prayer. YOUNG ADULTS (ages 18-30) – If you are interested in growing more in your faith with a community, please contact me!

It seems as though summer has just started but we are already starting to see ads for Back-to-School sales! We will be collecting school supplies such as new or gently used backpacks, notebooks, folders, pens, pencils, crayons, etc. throughout July and August for needy children in our area. Every child likes to have new supplies to start the new school year as it seems to make going back to school more exciting and just a little bit easier. All donations can be left in the back of the church in the St. Vincent de Paul bins. Thank you for your kindness and generosity!

Hunger doesn't take a vacation! Please help us to keep our pantry stocked so that we are able to provide for those that come to us for help. Pantry items that we currently need are macaroni and cheese, canned vegetables, granola bars, crackers, canned meats, pancake mix/syrup, and applesauce. All donations may be left in the back of the church in the designated bins. Thank you and God bless you for your constant support and generosity.
