Dear Friends in Christ,

Our diocese is celebrating National Vocation Awareness Week. Our parish has been blessed to be chosen to host one of our seminarians for the weekend hearing him speak to us at all the Masses. Mr. Paul Abbruscato, a seminarian for the Diocese of Camden, will be present at Infant Jesus Parish. We welcome Paul and look forward to hearing him share about his vocation to the Priesthood and encouraging more of our young men to consider offering their lives in service to God as a priest. There are so many families who are faithful to the Lord in our parish and it is inconceivable that men are not being called by Jesus to be a priest. How much we need brave men to step forward and be a true soldier for Christ! There is not a happier life than knowing one is serving the Most High God. It could not be more rewarding. We know that the seeds of a religious vocation are planted early. I am happy to announce that we have a new Youth Minister to serve at Infant Jesus Parish. Her name is Tara Ingebritsen who has relocated to our parish from Virginia. We met Tara when she visited our parish as a member of Cross Walk, the wonderful Pro-life group that crosses the nation bearing witness to the sanctity of life. Welcome to Infant Jesus Parish Tara! We look forward to your essential ministry in our parish. I express those who have worked with our youth since my time at our parish: Brian and Anne Fleming; Kate Quinn and Chrystal Fried who filled in for Jessica Fahy who stepped down after having her third child and has been called elsewhere. Jessica was an enthusiastic and faith filled leader in our midst and we wish her every blessing. Tara will build upon the ministry of these wonderful people who gave so much to help our youth to grow into Catholics who live their faith and to teach our young people that without Jesus we are lost.

God bless you,
Father Szolack

Family Prayer Crucifix for Vocations

Every Sunday at 10 AM Mass, we will see a family receive a Crucifix to take home for the week to pray for vocations to the Holy Priesthood and Religious Life. It is contained in a beautiful handcrafted box which also serves as a stand for the Crucifix. Prayers to be used by the host family are on a laminated program in the box. Every weekend the host family will return the Crucifix in procession. A new host family will receive it at the end of Mass. Sister Vilma is the Crucifix for Vocations coordinator. Let us pray for holy vocations to religious life from our parish. If you are praying over a possible calling, please speak to Father Szolack.

November 9 - 16: The Petito Family November 16 - 23: The Helder Family

GOD BLESS AMERICA!

God bless our men and women who put their lives on the line to preserve freedom around the world. We thank God for our good fortune to be citizens of the USA. We continue to pray for our men and women overseas especially, Justin Gousha, Shawn Jarrell, Becky & Nick Johnson, Martin Renzi, Brian Simmons, Rob Solome, Sarah Turse, Chris Fusco, Charity Winkler, Brian Schwartz, and Josh Little. If someone has returned home, we ask that you let us know. Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need. We ask this in Jesus' name.

Amen †††

MARRIED? HOW'S YOUR RELATIONSHIP?

A marriage can never be too good. Worldwide Marriage Encounter is designed to deepen and enrich the joys a couple shares together. Your weekend will give you the opportunity to examine your lives together – time to share your feelings, hopes, disappointments, joys, and frustrations open and honestly with the person you have chosen to live with for the rest of your life. Vincent and Kristen Buonaccorsi had this to say after they made a weekend, “Through Marriage Encounter our love has flowed. We have never experienced anything so beautiful. It is everything we never knew we always wanted.” Upcoming weekend dates: December 5-7, 2014, and February 6-8, and April 17-19, 2015. For more information call 609-742-
