Dear Friends in Christ,

The preacher Billy Graham said, "My home is in Heaven. I am just traveling through this world." The singer Amy Grant also reminds us as to why we are created: "We are just here to learn to love Him." Yes, we are all on our way home. Not wanting to be morose, it is a fact that everything we experience is preparing us for our eternal place. All of us have lost people we love, people we know, people with whom we worked and even the famous who shock us when we here their announced death. The key to both life and death is Jesus, the Risen Lord. It is He alone Who conquered sin and death. Foolishly, the majority of people live without Jesus in their lives and thus, they are missing the lesson of "learning to love Him." He certainly loves us...more than we can ever know or imagine. The Lord wants us to be with Him forever, but He allows us to choose Him, today and everyday. Do we think we will suddenly recognize Him when we come before Him if we did not bother to recognize Him in life? He comes to us everyday in the poor, the lonely, the sad, our spouse, our child, our workmate, our friend, even the face in the mirror. This life is a classroom on how to love so that we will be able to come before Love Himself. Mercifully, there is the doctrine of Purgatory to allow us to know that we can be cleansed of the filth we will take with us. Our offering of the Mass is the gift that we give in helping people to be immersed in the merciful purging before we dare to approach His Glory. Should we die without God, we choose to live without Him. It is our choice. How presumptuous we can be! I'm going to Heaven no matter what God thinks! It is outrageous. Saint John of the Cross said, "Where there is not love, put love and you will find Love!" May we all be swept up in the Lord's love into Heaven one day. John 3:16 is more than a sign at a football game, as Jesus says "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life." It is clear what He wants for us...what do we desire?

God bless you,
Father Szolack

Family Prayer Crucifix for Vocations

Every Sunday at 10 AM Mass, we will see a family receive a Crucifix to take home for the week to pray for vocations to the Holy Priesthood and Religious Life. It is contained in a beautiful handcrafted box which also serves as a stand for the Crucifix. Prayers to be used by the host family are on a laminated program in the box. Every weekend the host family will return the Crucifix in procession. A new host family will receive it at the end of Mass. Sister Vilma is the Crucifix for Vocations coordinator. Let us pray for holy vocations to religious life from our parish. If you are praying over a possible calling, please speak to Father Szolack.

We need your help!

- The Children's Booth is in need of Christmas bags, wrapping paper and tissue paper. If you have any of these items to spare, please bring them to the hall Thursday night, November 20, or all day Friday, November 21. We also need items for the children to purchase for their family members and friends at a price at their level, so do search your homes and bring some kids' gifts to the Children's Booth. Thanks so much.
- The Bake Booth is always in need of homemade cakes, pies, cookies, brownies or cupcakes. Do wrap them in clear plastic wrap and bring them early Saturday.
- Crafty ladies, take your talents to church and bring along any crafty item you think would sell. We especially appreciate knitted, crocheted or sewn items.
- Varieties of candies and pretzels will be available at our Candy Booth, as well as penny choices for the little ones.
- Do bring all your attic treasures; you never know what a wonderful buy you could obtain at our special Attic Treasures tables.
- The Religious Booth will have a treasure trove of articles donated to the church by a very religious member. Here, too, you can bring donations.

Last, but not least, do buy the raffle chances for the cash prizes of $300, $200 and $100 and come to the bazaar November 22 with your family and friends and support this parish effort.
