Dear Friends in Christ,

On the eve of the Feast of Saint Francis of Assisi, a priest died who is well known by people who watch EWTN, have been involved with Good Counsel Homes, read contemporary spiritual works or have attended the March for Life over the years. I met Father Benedict Groeschel when I was a young seminarian. I still recall visiting him with other seminarians on the Long Island Sound. We would spend the night looking at stars through a telescope with Father Benedict pointing out, with gusto, various constellations. Around the time I was ordained, Father Benedict would, along with others, found the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal. This group of friars would impress me greatly. Once I accompanied Father Benedict to the order's house for homeless men. I saw the simple life lived by the friars. These men, in grey habit, bushy beards and sandals would radiate a joy and commitment that seemed an extension of Father Benedict. His unique, North Jersey accent and sense of humor would lead many to consider a religious vocation, to do more for the poor and to strive to protect the unborn no matter the cost to self. Father Benedict leaves a wealth of writings, tapes and memories for so many. I once had a conversation with him while sitting on a bench on the Sound. I was being transferred to work as Dean of Men at Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary and was very apprehensive. I was the only priest not from the Archdiocese of Philadelphia to serve in this position. I questioned my abilities. This conversation with Father Benedict gave me a confidence that allowed me to enter into this assignment with total trust in the Lord. To think I questioned if I should agree to do the work! Father loved seminarians and told me to jump in and see the importance of the work. The work as Dean of Men turned out to be the six greatest years of my life. One can only imagine how many people could tell stories of encounters with Father Benedict or hearing his words on tapes or read his books that changed their lives. Our own Father Chris Mann was close to Father Benedict and was molded by him. Father Benedict knew Mother Teresa very well. Mother once said when encouraged to slow down, "I've never said no to Jesus and I'm not about to start now." Father Benedict, you never said "no" to the will of God and for that we give thanks. Rest in peace with the God Whom you served so well in this life.

God bless you,
Father Szolack

Family Prayer Crucifix for Vocations

Every Sunday at 10 AM Mass, we will see a family receive a Crucifix to take home for the week to pray for vocations to the Holy Priesthood and Religious Life. It is contained in a beautiful handcrafted box which also serves as a stand for the Crucifix. Prayers to be used by the host family are on a laminated program in the box. Every weekend the host family will return the Crucifix in procession. A new host family will receive it at the end of Mass. Sister Vilma is the crucifix for vocations coordinator. Let us pray for holy vocations to religious life from our parish. If you are praying over a possible calling, please speak to Father Szolack.
