Dear Friends in Christ,

A very important aspect of one's life with God is spiritual reading. There are so many good books, real spiritual classics that would be good to read. Naturally, Sacred Scripture is beyond spiritual reading for the Word of God is not mere literature, but inspired by the Holy Spirit. The Church Fathers have totally turned people's lives around. Books such as Story of a Soul by Saint Terese of Lisieux or Interior Castle by Saint Teresa of Avila are wonderful. Works by Saint Francis de Sales provide rich spiritual direction. Stories about saints, even American saints, such as Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton or Saint John Neumann would be most beneficial. Anything by G.K. Chesterton is both enjoyable and edifying as are the writings of Ronald Knox. Novels by Evelyn Waugh, perhaps Brideshead Revisited or Edmund Campion could be on the list. Books by Fyodor Dostoyevsky lead one into the Eastern tradition. Flannery O'Connor is a great American Catholic writer along with anything by J.F. Powers who wrote one my favorites: Morte D'Urban. Very powerful novels are The Screwtape Letters by CS Lewis, Shoes of the Fisherman by Morris West and A Man for All Seasons by Robert Bolt. So many enjoyed the Lord of the Rings movie series, read the books by J.R.R. Tolkien. Black Robe by Brian Moore or The Keys of the Kingdom by A.J. Cronin are edifying. Obviously, these mentioned are not even the tip of the iceberg. The important thing is to read and to consume good works that nourish the soul. A Catholic should read more than Vogue or Sports Illustrated. Choose something good and challenging this fall. Is it tough to read? Good! Stick with it and reap the benefits.

God bless you,
Father Szolack

GOD BLESS AMERICA!

RCIA

We - both clergy and laity - as disciples of Jesus Christ in Infant Jesus Parish all share a common twofold mission: to be faithful followers of Jesus and to then “Go, therefore, and make disciples.” Often what you can do, no one else can.

Do you know anyone who has never been Baptized or who for some reason never received all of their Sacraments?

Perhaps you know someone who is not Catholic but wants to be?

Would you like to help others enter into the Catholic Church?

Go, therefore, and ask. RCIA is the process by which our parish welcomes and initiates people into the fullness of Christian life in the Catholic Church. RCIA at Infant Jesus Parish is an exciting and growing ministry. This September we are beginning a year-round RCIA process that will enable us to better welcome and serve persons in all circumstances.

Anyone interested in either becoming Catholic or completing Sacraments should contact Fr. Chris Mann at 856-848-0047.

Those wanting to join the RCIA Team should also contact Fr. Chris to apply. There are many ways to serve in RCIA, so do not hesitate to inquire. Many hands make light work.

REMEMBER:

A vibrant Catholic parish is one that always invites newcomers and welcomes all people to enter into an ever deepening life of faith, both as individuals and as members of the Christian community. All of us must do our part whether it be from the pews, from the pulpit—or—by promoting and supporting the RCIA process. None of us has it all together, but together we have it all!

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord,
all ye lands.
Serve the Lord with gladness:
come before his presence with singing.
Psalm 100

Infant Jesus Parish Adult Choir joyfully
Invites You to join us September 9th at 7:15 PM.
No training required, just a desire to serve the Lord in some way. Singing with the choir is an easy and fun way to do just that. The Adult Choir sings every Sunday at the 10:00 AM Mass. There is also the Children's Choir who sings monthly and the Adult Ensemble for the 11:30AM Mass. Be sure to point this out to anyone you think has some talent to share. A little encouragement from you might be all they need.
We are looking for any instrument players to expand the sound as well.

40 Days of Francis: Day 27

Pope Francis quote of the week: “In a world where there is so much wealth, so many resources to feed everyone, it is unfathomable that there are so many hungry children, that there are so many children without an education, so many poor persons. Poverty today is a cry.” Knot of the week: In New Jersey, 31% of low income households spend more than 50% of total income on housing. Often, families must choose between paying rent, paying utilities or buying adequate food. Thank you to all who came out to an open house with Catholic Charities last week! We enjoyed the opportunity to get to meet you, and thank you for all of your support. We continue our 40 Day preparation for the visit of Pope Francis to Philadelphia. Visit your local Catholic Charities center to learn about ways to get involved or visit us online at CatholicCharitiesCamden.org/40Days.
