Dear Friends in Christ,

This is our last weekend before we begin the holy and intense season of Lent. On Tuesday, Mardi Gras or Fat Tuesday in English, is celebrated. There has been a carnival atmosphere for those who understand that from the Epiphany until this Tuesday, there is a culmination of eating and last minute revelry. While the first Mardi Gras in New Orleans was in 1837 for which the city is famous, the celebration has been well known throughout the world. In Sweden it is called Fastan; Martedi Grasso in Italy; Fastnacht in Germany and Carnaval de Barranquilla is Colombia's Mardi Gras celebration; amongst many others. Regretfully, Mardi Gras has gone from ridding one's house of all sweets and delicacies to downright debauchery. There are areas of the Mardi Gras Parade in New Orleans where a decent person best avoid. What does it mean to us in New Jersey? For the devout, in order to understand a feast, one should experience a fast. If one can eat whatever they want and do whatever they want at any time, then how can we really understand a feast? When you cannot have something, it becomes more precious. It is good to discipline the body and soul. Lent is that opportunity. Eat, drink and be merry on Fat Tuesday and dig deep, giving up pleasures in order to find the core of oneself beginning Ash Wednesday. Jesus went into the desert where everything is stripped away from Him. Why do we think that we can embark on a mystical journey without divesting ourselves of the unnecessary? These last days should be Carnival (Latin carnem lavare or to take away meat). Then the meaning of Lent (springtime) will be a rebirth of the Spirit within the recesses of our souls.

God bless you,
Father Szolack

 GOD BLESS AMERICA!

We continue to pray for our men and women overseas especially, Justin Gousha, Shawn Jarrell, Becky & Nick Johnson, Martin Renzi, Brian Simmons, Rob Solome, Sarah Turse, Chris Fusco, Charity Winkler, Brian Schwartz and Josh Little.

If someone has returned home, we ask that you let us know.

The play, The Way of the Cross, calls for no speaking parts. The actors perform to timed narrations and music with dramatic lighting effects. The play is a powerful mediation on Christ's love, forgiveness and healing. The narration attempts to bring to light that the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ is as relevant today as it was 2000 years ago.

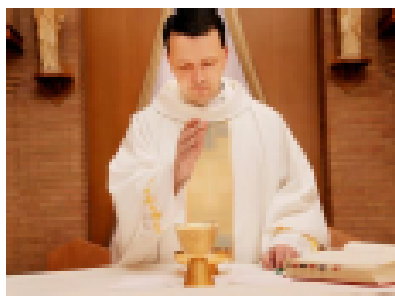

"Son though He was, He learned obedience from what He suffered; and when He was made perfect, He became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey Him."

Hebrews 5:8-9
