Dear Friends in Christ,

This weekend the Church celebrates the Feast of Corpus Christi or The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This mystery is absolutely central to whom we are as Catholics. The Real Presence of Jesus, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity calls forth from us: love, worship, devotion, piety, nourishment and all graces. Henry Hardinge Menzies, AIA, writes, "A Protestant was visiting a Catholic church accompanied by his Catholic friend, and after entering, he was admiring the beauty of the architecture and decorations. He was particularly impressed with the altar and the tabernacle on top which was surrounded by angels and many candles. He asked his Catholic friend, "And what's in that box there on the table?" The Catholic replied, "Jesus Christ himself is really present in that box. Our faith tells us that." There was stunned silence. Finally the Protestant said, "If I believed that, I would crawl down this aisle on my knees!" The Catholic Church has the Real Presence in Her midst and we can be so careless even callous towards our Lord. What are we to do? We should examine our comportment before the Holy Sacrament on all levels. Do we genuflect (bend down on one knee) upon our entrance at a Catholic Church? Are we silent in Church in a hushed awe before our Beloved or do we chat in the aisle or speak to our neighbor in unnecessary conversation? Now, one may say, "Oh Father, what's wrong with being social?" How many times people have complained that they cannot pray because of the chatter in Church and that people even talk right next to a person, disturbing their prayer without even blinking. Even the way we receive speaks so much. The Minister states the "Body of Christ" (not using our name or any other additions) and we respond beyond a mumble: "Amen." O how necessary to acknowledge His love in order to be saved! Even the way we dress makes a statement. Tea shirts (sadly) with profane sayings hardly say "I believe!" Immodest dress for Mass shows a true lack of awareness of where we are; I guess it says "Look at me rather than Jesus!" A mere 30% of Catholics reportedly believe that the sacrament of Holy Communion is actually the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of our Lord and Savior. I get chills even writing the results of that pole. If we are part of the 30%, then let us ramp up our expressions of love for Him by what we wear, how we speak in whispers in church, receiving Him with devotion and in a State of Grace.

God bless you,
Father Szolack

GOD BLESS AMERICA!

God bless our men and women who put their lives on the line to preserve freedom around the world. We thank God for our good fortune to be citizens of the USA.

We continue to pray for our men and women overseas especially, Justin Gousha, Shawn Jarrell, Becky & Nick Johnson, Martin Renzi, Brian Simmons, Rob Solome, Sarah Turse, Chris Fusco, Charity Winkler, Brian Schwartz and Josh Little.

If someone has returned home, we ask that you let us know.

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen †††
