Dear Friends in Christ,

On Fridays during Lent, we will once again have the Stations of the Cross which are a venerable way to meditate on the Passion and Death of Our Savior. The Stations call to mind that we are on a pilgrimage. Christians would go to the Holy Land to walk the royal steps of Jesus in His agony. I have had the privilege of walking the Stations of the Cross in the streets of Jerusalem. It was so powerful to walk on the cobbled streets through the shopping district and finishing with the offering of Holy Mass on Golgotha and then also offering Mass in the Holy Sepulchre. The first church erected at the Holy Sepulchre was completed in 335 AD. As is written, "Pilgrimages eventually took a fixed route from the ruins of the Fortress Antonia, where Pilate had his judgment hall, to the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. That route through Jerusalem's Old City gained acceptance as the way Jesus went to his death and remains unchanged today. It is known as the Via Dolorosa, Latin for the Sorrowful Way." After the Muslims took over the Holy Land, many sites were destroyed, but eventually the Franciscans would be the main custodians of the shrines in the Holy Land. The Holy Father would eventually give the Franciscans permission to erect the Stations of the Cross in their churches and eventually, this would spread to all churches around 1742. Saint Alphonsus Liguori would write the Stations with which we are familiar today. This ancient practice that takes us back to the holy spots in the life of our Lord should be a part of everyone's Lent. Fridays are special days to commemorate what Jesus did for us out of love. Why don't we shut off the television, put away our cellular phones, skip the mall and come to the House of the Lord to relive His act of salvation. The bulletin gives the schedule for the Stations. Jesus asks in the Garden of Gethsemane, "Couldn't you keep watch with me for one hour?" (Matthew 26:40). That question from our Lord's lips should haunt each of us.

God bless you,
Father Szolack

GOD BLESS AMERICA!

God bless our men and women who put their lives on the line to preserve freedom around the world. We thank God for our good fortune to be citizens of the USA.

We continue to pray for our men and women overseas especially, Justin Gousha, Shawn Jarrell, Becky & Nick Johnson, Martin Renzi, Brian Simmons, Rob Solome, Sarah Turse, Chris Fusco, Charity Winkler, Brian Schwartz and Josh Little.

If someone has returned home, we ask that you let us know.

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need. We ask this in Jesus' name.

Thank you for your continuing support. Please make your checks payable to:

"Infant Jesus Parish"

Next week there will be a second collection for Catholic Relief Services. Please be as generous as your means allow. Thank you

HOUSE OF CHARITY 2015

Our goal here at Infant Jesus Parish is $156,774.43 - but we have already raised an incredible $102,000.00 from the contributions of only 277 families! That's an average gift of over $368.23! Now we invite all parishioners to participate in this important effort.

Lay leadership training, intercultural ministries, ministry with the deaf and persons with disabilities, marriage enrichment, adult faith formation, liturgical catechesis and other evangelization efforts, along with your gifts, kindle the fire of faith into a bright beacon for all to see.

INFANT JESUS PARISH COOKBOOKS are available at the rectory. Cookbooks are $10.00 each. Thank you for your recipes, ideas and support!

Family Prayer Crucifix for Vocations

Each week we will see a family receive a Crucifix to take home for the week to pray for vocations to the Holy Priesthood and Religious Life. It is contained in a beautiful handcrafted box which also serves as a stand for the Crucifix. Prayers to be used by the host family are on a laminated program in the box. Every weekend the host family will return the Crucifix in procession. A new host family will receive it at the end of Mass. Let us pray for holy vocations to religious life from our parish. If you are praying over a possible calling, please speak to Father Szolack.

March 8 - Santaniello Family

March 15 - James Family

March 22 - Fabbro family

Please contact Mrs. Denise Dietrich 215-901-3199 if you would like your family to receive the crucifix at St. John Vianney Church. Thank you.
