Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

This weekend we celebrate the Third Sunday of Advent, traditionally known as “Gaudete Sunday” which means “rejoice”. As the celebration of the Birth of Jesus Christ is approaching, we should rejoice because of the Emmanuel “God with us”. Today’s Gospel tells us that when St. John the Baptist was imprisoned, he was in crisis, he began to doubt about Jesus. He doubted whether Jesus was truly the Messiah who was mentioned years ago by the prophets or not. He then sent his disciples to ask Jesus “Are you He who is to come or do we look for another?” Interestingly Jesus did not answer the question directly; but rather he told John’s disciples: “Go back and report to John what you hear and see: the blind recover their sight, cripples walk, lepers are cured, the deaf hear, dead men are raised to life, and the poor have the Good News preached to them.” Like St. John the Baptist, in time of crisis or difficulty, it is easy for us to fall into the temptation of doubt, doubting about God’s existence, his presence and his providential care in our lives. The effect of doubt eventual impacts upon our spiritual life, our faith would be fading away, our hope would turn into despair, and our love for God would become indifferent. If Jesus speaks to us now, he would say the same thing as he did to John’s disciples: “Hear and see for yourselves: all the good things I have done for and given to you in the past. Remember, when you were in trouble, I was there to rescue you, to comfort you, to heal you, to console you, to lift you up....” Let us rejoice with the whole Church for all the good things God has done in our lives, let us rejoice for the coming of the Emmanuel “God with us”, let us rejoice for our divine Healer is coming to heal us, let us rejoice since He is the ultimate fulfillment of our longings, and also the ultimate meaning for our existence. - Fr. Joe Pham

Infant Jesus Parish Ministries

JOIN OUR STEPHEN MINISTRY

When someone requests a Stephen Minister, one of our Stephen Leaders will meet with that person, explain what Stephen Ministry is, and help determine whether Stephen Ministry is the kind of care that person needs. They match that person with one of our available Stephen Ministers who will then call that person and begin meeting with him or her for about an hour each week as long as the need is there. Everything a care receiver says to his or her Stephen Minister is kept confidential. The Stephen Minister doesn't try to solve problems; rather he or she listens, cares, prays and helps the care receiver find his or her path to healing and wholeness

To learn more, email Deacon Frank at frankdunleavy@yahoo.com.

By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another. John 13:35

Family Prayer Crucifix for Vocations

Each week we invite a family to take a Crucifix home for a week to pray for Vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life. Let us pray for Priestly Vocations in our Diocese:

“Lord Jesus, we ask you to bless the Diocese of Camden with an increase in vocations to the Priesthood. We pray that young men from our parishes and families will hear your call and be both generous and courageous in their response. May more young men serve you as Priests who teach the faith, preach the Gospel, celebrate the Sacraments and make you present among us through their ministry. Encourage them to embrace the joy-filled and fulfilling life of a diocesan priest. May parents support priestly vocations in their families by prayer and good example. We entrust these prayers through Mary Immaculate, our patroness, hopeful that you will bless our diocese with more priests in the near future, who live and reign forever and ever. Amen.”

December 11 - The Schonewise Family

December 18 - The Roche Family

If you are praying over a possible calling, please speak to Fr. Joe.

Please contact Mrs. Zenith Macdonald at (856) 397-5978 if you would like your family to receive the Crucifix at St. Margaret Church. Thank you.
