Dear Friends in Christ,

This weekend our children in Second Grade received Holy Communion for the first time. What a special time for them and their families! These little ones remind us of our own call to receive Holy Communion with love and devotion. Henry Hardinge Menzies, AIA, writes, "A Protestant was visiting a Catholic church accompanied by his Catholic friend, and after entering, he was admiring the beauty of the architecture and decorations. He was particularly impressed with the altar and the tabernacle on top which was surrounded by angels and many candles. He asked his Catholic friend, "And what's in that box there on the table?" The Catholic replied, "Jesus Christ himself is really present in that box. Our faith tells us that." There was stunned silence. Finally the Protestant said, "If I believed that, I would crawl down this aisle on my knees!" The Catholic Church has the Real Presence in Her midst and we can be so careless, even callous towards our Lord. What are we to do? We should examine our comportment before the Holy Sacrament on all levels. Firstly, if we have missed Mass intentionally, we must go to confession before receiving the Blessed Sacrament, otherwise it is a sacrilege. Do we genuflect (bend down on one knee) upon our entrance at a Catholic Church? Are we silent in Church in a hushed awe before our Beloved or do we chat in the aisle or speak to our neighbor in unnecessary conversation? Even the way we receive Our Lord speaks so much. The Minister states the "Body of Christ" (not using our name or any other additions) and we, at times, respond little beyond a mumble: "Amen." The norm in the Catholic Church is to receive Holy Communion on the tongue, but a permission was given to various Bishop's Conferences to receive the Body of Christ in the hand. In the United States, we are permitted to receive in the hand. If we are going to receive in the hand, our hands should be clean (obviously people who work with ink and automobiles are a different case), without phone numbers, peace signs, etc., written on the palm and if the hand is gloved it will not be placed on the palm. One hand should be placed under the other always. Never receive with one hand and then shift it to the other because you are carrying a baby, a pocketbook, hat or cane. If you cannot receive with one hand under the other, one should receive Our Lord on the tongue. Also, our hand should be flat. If you need to hold the Sacred Host in place with your thumb, you are not receiving correctly. It is so painful at times to see the reception of Communion in such strange ways. This especially goes for children. The clutching, grab makes one blanch. A mere 30% of Catholics reportedly believe that the sacrament of Holy Communion is actually the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of our Lord and Savior. I get chills even writing the results of that pole. If, by God's grace, we are part of the 30%, then let us ramp up our expressions of love for Him by what we wear, how we speak in whispers in church, receiving Him with devotion and in a State of Grace.

God bless you,
Father Szolack

GOD BLESS AMERICA!

God bless our men and women who put their lives on the line to preserve freedom around the world.

We thank God for our good fortune to be citizens of the USA. We continue to pray for our men and women overseas especially, Ryan Berthold, Justin Gousha, Shawn Jarrell, Becky & Nick Johnson, Brian Schwartz, Rob Solome, Sarah Turse, Charity Winkler and Lieut. Carlo Aragoncillo. If someone has returned home, we ask that you let us know. Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Family Prayer Crucifix for Vocations

Each week we will see a family receive a Crucifix to take home for the week to pray for vocations to the Holy Priesthood and Religious Life. It is contained in a beautiful handcrafted box which also serves as a stand for the Crucifix. Prayers to be used by the host family are on a laminated program in the box. Every weekend the host family will return the Crucifix in procession. A new host family will receive it at the end of Mass. Let us pray for holy vocations to religious life from our parish. If you are praying over a possible calling, please speak to Father Szolack.

Please contact Mrs. Denise Dietrich 215-901-3199 if you would like your family to receive the crucifix at St. John Vianney Church. Thank you.

Now we invite all parishioners to participate in this important effort. (If each of our 3,000 + registered families would each give $5 - $10 we would easily reach our goal).

ST. MARGARET REGIONAL SCHOOL

CLASSROOM HIGHLIGHT

Mrs. Regina Butterworth
Middle School Science Teacher

Mrs. Butterworth has been teaching at St. Margaret Regional School for 6 years. Mrs. Butterworth encourages her students to work hard and keep reaching for that next level of understanding in science and other academic courses. She instructs middle school students in the introductory studies of biology, chemistry, physics and earth sciences. Mrs. Butterworth especially enjoys when her students have that "ah-ha" moment and can apply learned concepts to the unknown demonstrating growth in critical thinking skills. Mrs. Butterworth also moderates a small group of middle school students who are interested in participating on our competitive science fair team. The students choose an area of science and complete several months of research for the Annual Corriell Science Fair. Each topic in science can relate to our divine maker. Mrs. Butterworth calls upon St. Albert to pray for all scientists' talents to promote life rather than destroy it, for elusive cures to be found and for the moral use of the discoveries that scientists have already made. Please keep Mrs. Butterworth and her middle school science students in your prayers this week.

Good Counsel Homes, South Jersey, is very excited to celebrate our 5th Year Anniversary, April, 2016. We are celebrating the 54 babies born since opening our doors with our very first "Taste For Life" fundraiser (Cost $40), May 15th, 1-4pm at the Knights of Columbus Marian House in Cherry Hill, NJ. With your continued support, we will be able to give many mothers an alternative to abortion and give them hope in future. We thank you for your participation.
