Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Today's Gospel is hard for us to accept and even harder for us to put into practice. While our sinful human nature inclines to apply the principle: "an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth to all aspects of life", Our Lord Jesus taught us the opposite: "When someone strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other one as well". "An eye for an eye" is a cycle of revenge, retaliation, it is a cycle of evil which was defeated by the sacrificial death of our Redeemer, Jesus Christ on the cross. Imagine that, if Jesus applied this "principle" to all of us, then no one could escape eternal damnation. Today, Jesus needs someone to "co-sacrifice" with Him in order to stop this cycle of evil which is still occurring in families, communities, and in the world. This "someone" might be national leaders, clergy, religious, laity, husbands, wives, mothers, fathers, sons, daughters, neighbors, or friends. Just like the way of the cross was the only way for Jesus to redeem us, "turn another cheek" is also the only way to put an end to this cycle of evil in our lives and in the lives of others. Let each one of us be a helping hand for Jesus, be that "someone" who "turns another cheek" by not seeking evil for evil; but rather seeking peaceful solution, reconciliation, forgiveness, and conversion of sinners. Let us love our enemies by praying for their conversion, praying that some day they will turn around and stop hurting God, hurting themselves, and others. Remember only love can redeem, only love can change heart, and only love can bring back what was lost. - Fr. Joe Pham

Knights of Columbus WHEELCHAIR SUNDAY APPEAL February 18/19

This weekend please open your hearts and join the Fr. Pham and the American Wheelchair Mission, represented by the Knights of Columbus, to learn how you can help answer the prayers of a child, teen or adult, in desperate need of a wheelchair. Remember, in the poorest regions where the American Wheelchair Mission reaches, one wheelchair changes the lives of at least 10 persons providing individuals with independent mobility where in the past they depended on others. Your help through financial donations gives them all hope. Thank you for your generosity. For more detailed information please visit our council's web site at: www.kofc13259.org.

Family Prayer Crucifix for Vocations

Each week we invite a family to take a Crucifix home for a week to pray for Vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life. Let us pray for Priestly Vocations in our Diocese: "Lord Jesus, we ask you to bless the Diocese of Camden with an increase in vocations to the Priesthood. We pray that young men from our parishes and families will hear your call and be both generous and courageous in their response. May more young men serve you as Priests who teach the faith, preach the Gospel, celebrate the Sacraments and make you present among us through their ministry. Encourage them to embrace the joy-filled and fulfilling life of a diocesan priest. May parents support priestly vocations in their families by prayer and good example. We entrust these prayers through Mary Immaculate, our patroness, hopeful that you will bless our diocese with more priests in the near future, who live and reign forever and ever. Amen."

February 19 - The Allen Family
February 26 - The Gedaka Family

If you are praying over a possible calling, please speak to Fr. Joe.
