Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Recently, when celebrating the Sacrament of Penance for the children of both St. Margaret Regional School and the Religious Education Program, one thing that has saddened me a lot was that many of them confessed missing Mass many times on Sundays. Since they have been taught to keep the "Lord's Day" by attending Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation, they felt so bad, even terrified every time they missed Sunday Mass. We know that they did not go to Mass not because of their own faults; but because nobody drove them to Church. As parents and guardians, we should make every effort to care not just for the physical well-being of our children but also for their spiritual well-being as well. For the sake of the children's spirituality and faith formation, they need to be encouraged to pray daily and to attend Sunday Mass regularly. As children need to go to school to learn about this world, they need to go to Church also in order to learn about God, Jesus, and to live Jesus in their lives. While education is so important for young people on earth, the spiritual formation is far more essential for their eternal lives in heaven. Indeed we are living in a busy world today, our weekend schedules may be packed; however, if we just try to make an hour for Mass on Sunday, we would never know that hour might make a difference in our lives: It might transform our physical and spiritual weariness into refreshment, it might replace our anxiety with peace, and also it might ease all other burdens occupying our lives. As Jesus said: "Come to me, all you who are weary and find life burdensome, and I will refresh you." (Matt 11:28). Let's bring the children to Mass, let them be nurtured by the Bread of Life and be healed and touched by Jesus Christ our Savior, for they are so vulnerable who indeed need the divine protection and direction the most. -Fr. Joe

Easter is fast approaching and we have begun collecting for our annual Easter Basket Drive. On April 9th we will be making Easter food baskets for our neighbors in need, providing all of the fixings for Easter dinner and more. There are tags in the back of each of the churches with a food item named on them. Choose a tag or two and bring the item to the food bins in the back of the church or bring it to McKeever Hall on April 9th when we will be making the baskets. Hams are a special need. If you choose to donate a ham please do not leave it in the back of the church as we have no place to store it until it is needed. Please bring it directly to the hall on April 9th. Other items we need are canned veggies, fruit, chicken, cereal, pancake mix, syrup, soup, tuna, pasta and sauce, peanut butter & jelly, etc. Volunteers are always welcome to help make the baskets or deliver them. This is also a great opportunity for students to earn service hours for Confirmation. As always thank you for your continuous generosity to our ministry. Your kindness helps so many. Thank you and God Bless you!
