Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Lent is a penitential season which reminds us of who we are and who God is. On Ash Wednesday, the Church uses the symbol of ashes to signify that we are dust and unto dust we shall return. This is a true statement which is not only true to those who believe in Christ; but it is also true even to the atheists. However, our faith tells us that our finite bodies will be raised up on the last day by our Lord Jesus Christ who conquered our human mortality by his death on the cross. In today's Gospel, Jesus said: "One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God", he meant that we must live our lives in accordance with His Word in order to inherit eternal life and eternal happiness. Ironically, we know that, deep down in our hearts, we want to do and to live God's words in our lives; but very often we fail to do it, as St. Paul put it: "For I do not do what I want to do, but I do what I hate." (Romans 7:15). This is the nature of our human weakness, it is the constant struggle within our hearts, and the battle seems to be never conquered. As Jesus overcame temptations by entering into the desert to fast and pray; therefore, in order to win this battle of human weakness, we too must fast and pray as well. However, perhaps instead of fasting from food, we should fast from wasting our time on social media, from gossiping, or from unnecessary social gathering, and also, besides praying by our mouths and minds, we should pray more by our hands which is doing more charitable work and patiently helping those who are physically and mentally in need during these holy forty days. - Fr. Joe

Deacon Nicholas A. Danze:
Retirement from Ministry

Recently, Most Reverend Dennis Sullivan, Bishop of Camden, has accepted Deacon Nicholas Danze's petition for retirement from active ministry. On Sunday April 30, 2017, Deacon Nick will be officially retiring from all his active ministries at Infant Jesus Parish. After 18 years of serving Infant Jesus Parish, Deacon Nick unquestionably has done so many good things for the parish and school. He certainly has touched so many lives through his pastoral care. Our parish truly owes him a lot for his dedication, his loving service, his devotedness, and his spiritual enrichment. We wish our Deacon Nick all the best and we will continue to keep him in our prayers. "Well done, good and faithful servant," said Jesus. On Sunday April 30th, we will have a Thanksgiving Mass at 10:00 am for Deacon Nick and an appreciative brunch reception immediately following in the McKeever Hall. Invitations will be inserted in the bulletins soon.
