Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This Wednesday November 1st, the whole Church will celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints. The Saints are those who are living in the glory and presence of God in heaven. They are in a perfect place where their longings are fulfilled and their hearts are satisfied. When we gather together to celebrate the Feast of All Saints, we do not add any honor or glory to them since they lack nothing or need of anything from us; instead we need them to protect us and to pray for us in the presence of God. We thank God for rewarding them the gifts of eternal life and happiness. This Feast is a reminder to all of us that if we are listening to God's words and putting them into action every day of our lives, we will be like them when we come to the end of this earthly life. As the Saints are constantly praying for us, the living, in the presence of God, we too are obliged to pray for the dead. Remember, our religion is a communion religion, we are in communion with God, with the Saints, with others, and with the dead; therefore the prayers of the Saints and our prayers can benefit both the living and the dead. Let us come to celebrate the Eucharist in thanksgiving for all the Saints who are constantly praying for us and protecting us from the evil one. Let us also come to pray and to celebrate the Eucharist as a sacrifice of Jesus Christ for the salvation of all souls, those who right now cannot pray for themselves.

When was the last time you prayed for your beloved dead?

St. Margaret Mary Alacoque pray for us! St. John Vianney pray for us!

Lord Jesus have mercy on our beloved dead

Fr. Joe Pham

Where's the bank, the grocery store, the dentist? Oh, yes, a good vet? Is there a baseball team for 9-year-olds? The telephone doesn't ring. St. Margaret Regional School Celebrates Hispanic Heritage Month

Our students were guided during their Spanish class to study and recognize the contributions and important presence of Hispanic and Latino Americans to the United States and celebrated their heritage and culture. The students focused their study with a foundation in the Catholic faith. Students created travel brochures highlighting historical and spiritually significant Hispanic country destinations. The students also listened to Hispanic hymns and traditional songs from around the world. They studied and created Hispanic art. They researched Hispanic saints and blessed people to develop essays. Today, 55 million people or 17% of the American population are of Hispanic or Latino origin. We invite you to join us in this special tribute by learning and celebrating the generations of Hispanic or Latino Americans who have positively influenced and enriched our nation and society.

ST. MARGARET REGIONAL SCHOOL NEWS

Dear Parishioners,

The 2017-18 school year is off to a great start! We have already hosted a few events and had amazing attendance. Thank you for your many prayers and for supporting our school community and fundraising events. We look forward to having you join us throughout the year as we continue the mission of St. Margaret Mary and St. Francis in building community, serving others, growing in our faith and enriching our minds. Please be sure to read about our upcoming events on our school website www.stmargarets-rs.org and follow us on Facebook.

We are currently running a sale of KidStuff Coupon Books. The cost again is $25.00 and all proceeds go to the Sister Lorraine Science Scholarship Fund. This allows us to award two scholarships to two eighth graders who will be furthering their education at a Catholic high school. The coupon book truly pays for itself. There are coupons for clothing, shoes, sporting goods, crafts, toys, activities, food, and more. This may be the perfect Christmas gift for "those who have everything".
