Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In today's Gospel, Jesus healed the deaf man who also had a speech impediment. By healing him, Jesus touched the man's ears and tongue and then commanded "Ephphatha" which means "be opened". Seventeen years ago, on September 11, 2001, our whole nation's ear was opened to hear the cry of the victims of the horrible and unforgettable tragedy, our whole nation's tongue was loosened to pray in solidarity for the victims and their families. This September 11 tragedy has not ended yet; it still happens around the world, thousands of innocent victims still suffer and die everyday due to terrorism, violence, persecution, injustice, racial, and religious discriminations. Let us pray that Jesus will open the ear of our hearts so that we continue to hear the cry of those who are suffering and dying unjustly and violently around the world, those who are unborn, abandoned, separated, rejected, discriminated and abused. These victims could be strangers, next door neighbors, or even those who live under the same roof with us. Let us ask Jesus to loosen our tongues so that we will be able to pray for them, be able to speak a word of loving care and comfort, a word of reconciliation and forgiveness. Be aware of our selfishness and indifference that would easily close our hearts, deafen our ears, and impede our tongues on these victims. May each one of us be willing to accept Jesus' command "Ephphatha", be opened, so that Jesus will be able to touch others through our ears and tongues. -Fr. Joe Pham
