Blessed Mother Statue

Infant Jesus Parish parishioners are invited to schedule a visit to your home from our beautiful statue of Our Blessed Mother. The statue is protected by a hand-crafted wooden case and clear Plexiglas cover (designed and built by Tom Mull-holland). The statue includes rosaries and a special prayer card.

To schedule a week with our Blessed Mother statue, contact Patti Graham at (856) 905-4646. The protective case is designed with a carry handle at the top, but it is a bit heavy to carry. If you need assistance loading the statue into your vehicle, or even delivering it to your home, please let us know and arrangements will be made to assist with the delivery and return to the Church.

GOD BLESS AMERICA!

We continue to pray for our men & women overseas especially:

Johanny DelOrbe, Megan Dolan, Justin Gousha, Shawn Jarrell, Becky & Nick Johnson, Brian Schwartz, Rob Solome, Sarah Turse, Joseph Raab, Charles LaGrossa and Anthony Meadows.

If someone has returned home, please let us know.

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen. †††

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we enter the First Week of Lent, the Gospel presents us the scene of the mind battle between Jesus and Satan, right and wrong, good and evil, light and darkness. Satan tried to persuade Jesus from not using the way of the cross to redeem humanity; but rather using the way of “worldly allurements to override” the sins of humanity. As the tempter tempted Jesus: “If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread.” However, Jesus responded: “One does not live on bread alone”. Jesus was seeking the redemption of souls; whereas Satan was seeking the redemption of the body. Jesus was looking at the fulfillment for the deepest longing of the human heart; whereas Satan was looking at the temporary satisfaction of the “belly”. Jesus was planning something eternal for humanity; whereas Satan was planning something temporal and destructive. Everyday we struggle with the same temptation like Jesus’: the battle of right and wrong, good and evil, following Jesus our Savior or Satan the deceiver, to choose eternal or temporal, which is here today and gone tomorrow. As deceiver, Satan paints a “picture full of worldly illusive glory and eternal fatal attractions” in our minds in order to trap us into eternal damnation with him. Like Jesus, the tempter tries to tempt us to turn away from spiritual need and focus only on carnal need. Unfortunately, many people are easily falling into this tempted deception. Let us use this Lenten Season to focus on our eternal spiritual life and seek the means of prayers, sacrifices, charitable work, and ultimately the Sacrament of reconciliation to fulfill them. Let us not be deceived by Satan about the carnal fulfillment of this world because the truth is that the longings in our hearts are eternal and all earthly things are finite; thus finite things are impossible to fulfill. Let us use this Season of Lent to look for the “Bread of Life” so that our hearts will never be “hungry” again. - Fr. Joe Pham

The purpose of this convocation is to learn and explore the New Evangelization as Disciples in Mission.

I ask everyone please keep praying for the team and I that we may be inspired and be on fire when we return from this Convocation.

Prayer for the 2019 Convocation of Catholic Leaders: Joy of the Gospel in South Jersey

O Holy Spirit, you who first enkindled in our hearts
the joy of the Gospel, renew that same joy in those who will gather to attend the Convocation of Catholic Leaders: Joy of the Gospel in South Jersey.

Continue to enflame the hearts of our Bishop, priests, and their parish delegations, all religious,
and speakers, all who make this event possible.
Move us to welcome the word of life in the depths of our hearts and respond to the call of missionary discipleship.

O Holy Spirit, transform our hearts and enable us to enter into the perfect communion that you share with the Father and the Son.

Mary Immaculate, who first received the Gospel,
pray for us. Amen

Lord, You have given us the gift of life and have woven the story of Your love into our hearts and minds and every part of our beings.

You have shown us how to live in Your love, and you taught us that whatever we do for the least of your sisters and brothers, we do unto You.

We ask that the work that we do in service to your least ones be our prayer. May it show our gratitude for all your gifts and express our love for You in return.

Help us to love ardently, share in Your suffering joyfully, and serve You wholeheartedly in our sisters and brothers, especially those most in need who are helped through the House of Charity. Amen.

OLIVEWOOD CARVING EVENT

March 16, 17

The Olivewood carving industries has evolved as a cultural tradition of the Christians over many centuries. Many Holy Land Christians in the Bethlehem area alone rely upon income generated from this art form. Local Catholic artisans carve the items. Many families are facing critical situations. Without income, Artisans leave their tradition art and trade and emigrate with their families to find relief from the difficult conditions of their homeland. The loss of the Christians in the Land of Christianity's birth will represent a tragedy of immeasurable proportions for all Christians worldwide. Thank you for your vital support for Christian Tradition and in protecting this very important culture and industry.

What is one skill you hope your students will achieve by the end of the school year?

I would like my students to take with them an enthusiasm for learning and to truly love coming to school. I would also like for my students to have an understanding that God loves them and made them with special gifts and talents to share with the world.

“JESUS THE HEALER”

This is an UNFORGETTABLE EXPERIENCE OF HEALING presented by the FRANCISCAN MYSTERY PLAYERS. Through the use of special lighting and sound, this moving dramatic meditation promises to be a high point in our Parish’s spiritual journey. Because of the intensity of the subject matter of suffering and death, it may not be recommended for children. We strongly encourage all our ADULTS and TEENS to attend this unique and prayerful presentation on Friday, March 29th at 7:30 PM. DON’T MISS THIS!!!!

On Sunday, March 31, 2019, join Bishop Sullivan along with priests, religious, our seminarians and many other people from throughout the diocese at Washington Lake Park (626 Hurffville Crosskeys Rd, Sewell, NJ 08080) for our 8th annual iRace4Vocations.
