Family Prayer Crucifix for Vocations

Each week we invite a family to take a Crucifix home for a week to pray for Vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life.

March 24 - The Sank Family

If you are praying over a possible calling, please speak to Fr. Joe Pham. Please contact Mrs. Zenith Macdonald at (856) 397-5978 if you would like your family to receive the Crucifix at St. Margaret Church. Thank you.

Blessed Mother Statue

Infant Jesus Parish parishioners are invited to schedule a visit to your home from our beautiful statue of Our Blessed Mother. The statue is protected by a hand-crafted wooden case and clear Plexiglas cover (designed and built by Tom Mullholland). The statue includes rosaries and a special prayer card.

To schedule a week with our Blessed Mother statue, contact Patti Graham at (856) 905-4646. The protective case is designed with a carry handle at the top, but it is a bit heavy to carry. If you need assistance loading the statue into your vehicle, or even delivering it to your home, please let us know and arrangements will be made to assist with the delivery and return to the Church.

GOD BLESS AMERICA!

We continue to pray for our men & women overseas especially:

Johanny DelOrbe, Megan Dolan, Justin Gousha, Shawn Jarrell, Becky & Nick Johnson, Rob Solome, Sarah Turse, Joseph Raab, Charles LaGrossa and Anthony Meadows.

If someone has returned home, please let us know.

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen. †††

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we are already half way through the Lenten Season, we are reminded by today's Gospel: "Sir, leave it for this year also, and I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it; it may bear fruit in the future. If not you can cut it down." This parable of the "fig tree" signifies God's loving care and patience, He is not quick to condemn but rather always giving us a second chance to change, to convert, and to be redeemed. Imagine if Jesus did not have patience, the whole world would be gone now.

The more we reflect upon Jesus's patience, the more we find ourselves so embarrassed: embarrassed because we take His patience for granted everyday; whereas we have so little patience for others if not at all. Thanks be to Jesus for His tireless patience; however we must be conscious of the "hour" which may come to us at anytime, when it comes, it would be too late to change. It is not because Jesus's patience is limited but rather because our time on this earthly journey is limited. It would never be too late if one is conscious of the need to change, to convert, to refocus, to grow, and do it. If God is so patient with us and always gives us a second chance, we too need to be more patient with others at least with our loved ones. Also we should not be so quick to condemn; rather giving others a second chance to change and grow. Remember God's mercy and forgiveness does not work with "contradiction" as we learn from the "Our Father Prayer": "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespasses against us." Let us take this time to examine our lives to see what/where needs to be corrected, changed, or grown. Meanwhile, let us practice our charity as atonements for our sins by being more tolerant, patient, forgiving, and giving others a second chance during this "Season of following Jesus' footsteps to Calvary". -Fr. Joe Pham

(Mark 14:37). Aren't we?

Lord, You have given us the gift of life and have woven the story of Your love into our hearts and minds and every part of our beings.

You have shown us how to live in Your love, and you taught us that whatever we do for the least of your sisters and brothers, we do unto You.

We ask that the work that we do in service to your least ones be our prayer. May it show our gratitude for all your gifts and express our love for You in return.

Help us to love ardently, share in Your suffering joyfully, and serve You wholeheartedly in our sisters and brothers, especially those most in need who are helped through the House of Charity. Amen.

“JESUS THE HEALER”

This is an UNFORGETTABLE EXPERIENCE OF HEALING presented by the FRANCISCAN MYSTERY PLAYERS. Through the use of special lighting and sound, this moving dramatic meditation promises to be a high point in our Parish’s spiritual journey. Because of the intensity of the subject matter of suffering and death, it may not be recommended for children. We strongly encourage all our ADULTS and TEENS to attend this unique and prayerful presentation on Friday, March 29th at 7:30 PM. DON’T MISS THIS!!!!
