March 31 - The Cianfrani Family
April 7 - The Monaghan Family

If you are praying over a possible calling, please speak to Fr. Joe Pham. Please contact Mrs. Zenith Macdonald at (856) 397-5978 if you would like your family to receive the Crucifix at St. Margaret Church. Thank you.

Blessed Mother Statue

Infant Jesus Parish parishioners are invited to schedule a visit to your home from our beautiful statue of Our Blessed Mother. The statue is protected by a hand-crafted wooden case and clear Plexiglas cover (designed and built by Tom Mull-holland). The statue includes rosaries and a special prayer card.

To schedule a week with our Blessed Mother statue, contact Patti Graham at (856) 905-4646. The protective case is designed with a carry handle at the top, but it is a bit heavy to carry. If you need assistance loading the statue into your vehicle, or even delivering it to your home, please let us know and arrangements will be made to assist with the delivery and return to the Church.

GOD BLESS AMERICA!

We continue to pray for our men & women overseas especially:

Johanny DelOrbe, Megan Dolan, Justin Gousha, Shawn Jarrell, Becky & Nick Johnson, Rob Solome, Sarah Turse, Joseph Raab, Charles LaGrossa and Anthony Meadows.

If someone has returned home, please let us know.

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen. †††

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today's Gospel tells us the story of the "Prodigal Son" which signifies the mercy of God the Father for humanity. The moral of this story is not so much about the repentant son; but rather it is about the mercy attribute of the father. When the first son realized that the celebration was for the return of his younger brother, he was so upset and angry with his father. Disappointed a little but gently the father explained the reason for the celebration to him:

"My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours. But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found."

The two sons have two different perceptions about their father, for the older son, his father was a "strict and legalistic man"; therefore he expected his father to punish his younger son for breaking the "family law" instead of celebrating. However, the younger son perceived his father as a loving and forgiving father and that was the reason for him to come back.

What perceptions do we have about God our Father? God is strict and legalistic, the law is the law, law breakers must be punished; or God is full of mercy and compassion, always ready to forgive? For some still worship God and practice their faith legalistically such as going to Sunday Mass because of "obligation" instead of the need of salvation, not breaking the Ten Commandments due to "fear" of punishment rather than due to the love of God and neighbor, or receiving the Sacraments of Baptism, Holy Communion, Confirmation, Matrimony, just for the sake of "celebration/ceremony" rather than for the sake of a strong faith in God, assured hope in eternal life, and true love of God and neighbor. God does not want us to approach Him this way, He does not want us to perceive Him as the older son perceived his father. God wants us to treat Him as a merciful Father who is always waiting at the "gate" for our return. Waiting to restore our dignity as His children who were lost through sin, and waiting to celebrate our new life in Him again. This is the "kind" of God we are believing and worshipping. -Fr. Joe Pham

"Simon, are you asleep? Weren't you able to stay awake with me for even one hour?"
(Mark 14:37). Aren't we?

Lord, You have given us the gift of life and have woven the story of Your love into our hearts and minds and every part of our beings.

You have shown us how to live in Your love, and you taught us that whatever we do for the least of your sisters and brothers, we do unto You.

We ask that the work that we do in service to your least ones be our prayer. May it show our gratitude for all your gifts and express our love for You in return.

Help us to love ardently, share in Your suffering joyfully, and serve You wholeheartedly in our sisters and brothers, especially those most in need who are helped through the House of Charity. Amen.
