Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament is every Friday in Our Lady of Guadalupe Chapel until 5:00 PM. On First Fridays, the Blessed Sacrament is adored after 8:30AM Mass until Saturday morning continuously. If you would like to come to adoration, please sign in (guests as well as scheduled adorers). If you are scheduled for adoration and cannot attend, please try to get a replacement or call the rectory 856-848-0047.

Family Prayer Crucifix for Vocations

Each week we invite a family to take a Crucifix home for a week to pray for Vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life.

If you are praying over a possible calling, please speak to Fr. Joe Pham. Please contact Mrs. Zenith Macdonald at (856) 397-5978 if you would like your family to receive the Crucifix at St. Margaret Church. Thank you.

Blessed Mother Statue

Infant Jesus Parish parishioners are invited to schedule a visit to your home from our beautiful statue of Our Blessed Mother. The statue is protected by a hand-crafted wooden case and clear Plexiglas cover (designed and built by Tom Mull-holland). The statue includes rosaries and a special prayer card.

To schedule a week with our Blessed Mother statue, contact Patti Graham at (856) 905-4646. The protective case is designed with a carry handle at the top, but it is a bit heavy to carry. If you need assistance loading the statue into your vehicle, or even delivering it to your home, please let us know and arrangements will be made to assist with the delivery and return to the Church.

GOD BLESS AMERICA!

We continue to pray for our men & women overseas especially:

Johanny DelOrbe, Megan Dolan, Justin Gousha, Shawn Jarrell, Becky & Nick Johnson, Rob Solome, Sarah Turse, Joseph Raab, Charles LaGrossa and Anthony Meadows.

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen. †††

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This Sunday we celebrate the Second Sunday of Easter called Sunday of the Divine Mercy. Today's Gospel tells us that, after the resurrection, the Risen Christ appeared to his disciples, everyone was present and saw the Risen Christ except Thomas. The missing Thomas did not happen by chance but rather it was God's providential plan. Indeed the doubting Thomas is a "living witness" of the Risen Christ for doubting generations to come. Thomas was told by his fellowmen that Jesus came back to life and appeared to them; but he did not believe it, he demanded seeing and touching in order to believe "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail marks and put my hands into his side, I will not believe." Thomas' demanding proof of Jesus' resurrection is providentially serving a two fold-purpose: proof of the resurrection of Jesus Christ and of his Divine Mercy for humanity. Surprisingly, when the Risen Christ appeared again and invited doubting Thomas to touch him, instead of touching his scars and nail marks as he demanded, Thomas cried out from the depth of his heart: "My Lord and my God". For Thomas, the evidence of the resurrection of Jesus Christ was so overwhelming: "Jesus is living with the same physical body, his nail marks and scars are still there, speaking with the same caring and gentle tone etc." Also, by showing his nail marks and scar from his side, Jesus wanted Thomas, and indeed all future generations, to recognize these signs as his Divine Mercy for humanity. As the Incarnation was an "act of Divine Mercy", by mercy Jesus took upon himself our human nature and became man which was later manifested in his nail marks and scar. Like Thomas, Jesus invites us to come to the Eucharistic Table to touch his nail marks and scar and believe, to recognize and receive his Divine Mercy and be saved. -Fr. Joe Pham
