Blessed Mother Statue

Infant Jesus Parish parishioners are invited to schedule a visit to your home from our beautiful statue of Our Blessed Mother. The statue is protected by a hand-crafted wooden case and clear Plexiglas cover (designed and built by Tom Mullholland). The statue includes rosaries and a special prayer card.

To schedule a week with our Blessed Mother statue, contact Patti Graham at (856) 905-4646. The protective case is designed with a carry handle at the top, but it is a bit heavy to carry. If you need assistance loading the statue into your vehicle, or even delivering it to your home, please let us know and arrangements will be made to assist with the delivery and return to the Church.

GOD BLESS AMERICA!

We continue to pray for our men & women overseas especially:

Johanny DelOrbe, Megan Dolan, Justin Gousha, Shawn Jarrell, Becky & Nick Johnson, Rob Solome, Sarah Turse, Joseph Raab, Charles LaGrossa and Anthony Meadows.

If someone has returned home, please let us know.

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen. †††

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

From the beginning St. Paul did not believe in the resurrection of Jesus Christ and zealously persecuted those who believed it. However, after encountering the Risen Christ, he did not just become a believer but he also considered Jesus Christ as everything in this life. As he wrote in the Second Reading today:

“I consider everything as a loss because of the supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ and be found in him....”

For St. Paul, to know Jesus, to have Jesus, and to live Jesus in this life is a treasure which values the most, above and beyond everything else in this finite world. Truly St. Paul’s testimonial witness of his faith in Christ was the most powerful and undeniable proof of Christ’s resurrection. As believers in the Risen Christ, like St. Paul, we too should make Christ the center of our lives, we should put Christ above and beyond everything else. We should not let any works, sports, entertainment, worldly concerns or attractions prevent us from Sunday worshiping. In only a week, we will celebrate Holy Week, the commemoration of Christ’s Passion, Death, and Resurrection. We are reminded that Jesus paid for the price of our sins and gained us back to his heavenly kingdom. Therefore; we have a second chance to live our lives for Christ, to “gain Christ and to be found in Him”. It is indeed a “big loss” for those who do not realize that “all things are rubbish”, things are passing away, here today and gone tomorrow. It is a “waste of time” for those who spend time on worldly affairs and do not have time for God even only one hour at Sunday Mass. It is unwise to “gain the whole world and forfeit one’s soul” (Matt 16:26). Lord Jesus Christ, my savior and my destiny, open our minds and hearts so that we can see the need of your presence in our lives . Amen -Fr. Joe Pham

“Simon, are you asleep? Weren’t you able to stay awake with me for even one hour?”
(Mark 14:37). Aren’t we?

Lord, You have given us the gift of life and have woven the story of Your love into our hearts and minds and every part of our beings.

You have shown us how to live in Your love, and you taught us that whatever we do for the least of your sisters and brothers, we do unto You.

We ask that the work that we do in service to your least ones be our prayer. May it show our gratitude for all your gifts and express our love for You in return.

Help us to love ardently, share in Your suffering joyfully, and serve You wholeheartedly in our sisters and brothers, especially those most in need who are helped through the House of Charity. Amen.

Celebrating 55 Years of Excellence in Catholic Education in the Franciscan Tradition

Deptford Police Officer and history enthusiast, Eric Kerby, gave a wonderful presentation to our 8th Grade students on America’s entrance into World War II with the attack on Pearl Harbor. Officer Kerby shared a PowerPoint presentation on the events of December 7, 1941. He also shared artifacts from both the Pacific and Atlantic theaters of World War II.

Meet Mrs. Denise Bisirri — First Grade

What is one skill you hope your students will achieve by the end of the school year?

Each year when students enter my classroom, I hope they become inspired to learn. Through each element within my classroom, I aspire to create a learning environment that not only supports but also encourages learning through each child’s unique interest and type of learning. I strive to motivate students to acquire new skills and knowledge while building on their preexisting skills and knowledge. Through this type of learning environment, I hope my students will leave my classroom filled with a life-long love of learning.
