WELCOME NEWLY ORDAINED
DEACON JOHN WILLIAM
MARCH

Our parish joyfully congratulates and welcomes Transitional Deacon March to our parish family. Deacon John William March was ordained on May 11, 2019 by Most Reverend Bishop Dennis Sullivan, Bishop of Camden, and is now assigned to our parish for his Deaconate year of pastoral ministry. Deacon March, 40 years old, is originally from St. Rose of Lima in Haddon Heights. Currently, he is studying at the Immaculate Conception Seminary at Seton Hall University in South Orange, New Jersey, where he just completed his Third Year of Theology. Deacon March will be with us during this summer until the fall, then he will return to the Seminary to finish his studies and formation. During his next academic year, Deacon March will be back and forth on weekends for his Deaconate pastoral ministry at Infant Jesus Parish. We thank Bishop Sullivan for entrusting Deacon March to our care. With loving support, let us embrace him in our hearts and our prayers.

GOD BLESS AMERICA!

We continue to pray for our men & women overseas especially:

Johanny DelOrbe, Megan Dolan, Justin Gousha, Shawn Jarrell, Becky & Nick Johnson, Rob Solome, Sarah Turse, Joseph Raab, Charles LaGrossa and Anthony Meadows.

If someone has returned home, please let us know.

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In today's Gospel, Jesus gave us his heartfelt advice: "Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." Jesus spoke these words from the depth of his heart. He did not order us to do something if he himself didn't do it first. There are undeniable facts that we are all sinners, we all make mistakes, we all want to be forgiven, and ultimately we all want to be loved by God no matter how sinful we are. Jesus knows who we are: sinful beings who sin, make mistakes, and fail everyday; however he still loves each one of us unconditionally and forgives us unreservedly. Now the only thing he asks of us in return is to "love one another". However, in order to do this, we first need to be reminded and be in touch with our own sinfulness, our own unworthiness, and our own brokenness, since it is easier for a drug addict to understand and sympathize for another drug addict than a clean person or it is easier for an adulterer to show mercy, and forgiveness for another adulterer than an ever faithful one. Indeed, God's love cannot enter one's selfish heart who only wants to be forgiven and to be loved by God but does not want to forgive or to love others. This commandment of "love one another" means opening one's heart for forgiveness, for reconciliation, for healing, for conversion, for others' second chance to change, to come back, to restart again, and to rebuild one's life as Jesus does for us. When keeping this commandment, we do not do any favors for the ones who receive our love; but rather we do a favor for ourselves as Jesus said: "forgive, and you will be forgiven, give and it will be given to you." (Mark 4:24). Therefore; let us forgive ourselves by forgiving one another, let us love ourselves by loving one another so that "with what measure you measure, it will be measured to you." (Luke 6:37). -Fr. Joe Pham
