YOU DID IT FOR ME

Lord, You have given us the gift of life and have woven the story of Your love into our hearts and minds and every part of our beings.

You have shown us how to live in Your love, and you taught us that whatever we do for the least of your sisters and brothers, we do unto You.

We ask that the work that we do in service to your least ones be our prayer. May it show our gratitude for all your gifts and express our love for You in return.

Help us to love ardently, share in Your suffering joyfully, and serve You wholeheartedly in our sisters and brothers, especially those most in need who are helped through the House of Charity. Amen.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Story of Martha and Mary in today's Gospel is a "wake-up call" for all of us. It reminds us of the purpose of our lives and what we should do to achieve that purpose. Martha invited Jesus into her home and was "burdened with much serving"; whereas Mary her sister was sitting and listening to Jesus' teaching. When Martha could not take the "burden of serving" any more, she asked Jesus to tell her sister, Mary, to help her with the serving. However, instead of telling Mary to help her sister, Jesus responded: "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her." Indeed, we are human beings and not "human-doing", we should be concerned more about being with God and the things of heaven rather than "getting earthly things done". Everyday our "living" must be rooted in the love of God and the truths of his teaching, everyday our "doing" must be rooted in prayer and motivated by the love of others. In other words, we must try to balance between our spiritual life and earthly life. When entering Martha's house, Jesus wanted her to benefit from his preaching rather than wanting a good "meal" from her. He wanted her to be concerned and to value the heavenly things over earthly things. He wanted her to know that whatever she was doing on earth must be geared to one thing which was eternal life. Moreover, Martha's problem was that she forgot who she was serving, whom she was preparing the meal for, she was just "doing" for the sake of "doing" and not being conscious of the fact that she was "doing" out of the love for Jesus. If what she was doing was for the love of Jesus, she would not feel so "burdened and anxious" instead she would feel more excited and joyful by serving the one she loved. How often do we feel so "burdened" by taking care of our loved ones? If we "do" it merely for the sake of "doing" then it would certainly become a burden; but if we "do" it out of love, then it would be a joy and pleasure. -Fr. Joe Pham

Guide Book Advertising Opportunity

We have partnered with Guide Book Publishing to provide a Guide Book for our parish that we will update and publish annually. This book is delivered directly to every member at no cost to our parish. Local businesses are being solicited to advertise in the book, but we want to make sure our members have first access to prime locations in this directory.

This is a great opportunity for your business because our members prefer to support businesses that support our parish. Recent results of a survey taken by GBP show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize an advertiser over a non-advertiser and 70.9% consciously look to see who is advertising. If you are interested in advertising in our Guide Book, please call the rectory at 856-848-0047. Thank you for your support!

Blessed Mother Statue

Infant Jesus Parish parishioners are invited to schedule a visit to your home from our beautiful statue of Our Blessed Mother. The statue is protected by a hand-crafted wooden case and clear Plexiglas cover (designed and built by Tom Mullholland). The statue includes rosaries and a special prayer card.

To schedule a week with our Blessed Mother statue, contact Patti Graham at (856) 905-4646. The protective case is designed with a carry handle at the top, but it is a bit heavy to carry. If you need assistance loading the statue into your vehicle, or even delivering it to your home, please let us know and arrangements will be made to assist with the delivery and return to the Church.

New Jersey Independent Victims Compensation Program

The Diocese of Camden – along with the other Roman Catholic dioceses in New Jersey – has established an Independent Victim Compensation Program (IVCP) to compensate those who, as children or young adults, were sexually abused by a priest of the Diocese.

The IVCP is independently administered by experienced victim compensation experts Kenneth R. Feinberg and Camille S. Biros.

The IVCP will handle the submission, evaluation and resolution of individual claims, and operates independently of the Diocese or any church-affiliated institution. The administrators of the IVCP have complete autonomy to determine the eligibility of a claim with the guidelines of the established Protocol. The amount of compensation for those who make a claim will be independently determined by the IVCP administrators. All victims – no matter when the abuse occurred – are eligible to participate, and all matters will be handled confidentially.

Victims of clergy sexual abuse of a minor can begin the process of utilizing the program by going to www.njdiocesesivcp.com and reviewing the protocol for submitting a claim.

Bishop Sullivan strongly encourages anyone who was sexually victimized by a priest of the Diocese to participate in the IVCP, and has asked that anyone who knows of someone who was abused to contact them so that they are aware of the IVCP and can participate in it.

We love because he first loved us. - 1 John 4:19

St. John Vianney (1786-1859)

Ordained a priest in 1815 and later made the parish priest of Ars, he is commonly known as the "Cure" of Ars". His reputation grew as a confessor and director of souls throughout the Christian world so much that he spent many hours every day in the confessional. He lived a life of torment and mortification which resulted in him having great patience. Saint John Vianney was a true child of God in his simplicity and performed many works of charity and love guiding God's lost sheep back to the fold. He passed away on August 4, 1859 which is his Feast Day.
