Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

“Vanity of vanities! All things are vanity!” Indeed, everything in this world is so in vain: “For what profit comes to a man from all the toil and anxiety of heart with which he has labored under the Sun? All his days sorrow and grief are his occupation; even at night his mind is not at rest.” This scriptural passage spells out the reality of this earthly life: Weariness, insecurity, anxiety, sorrow, grief, and unrest seem to be endless, never going away. At the end of one’s life, everything one has worked hard for is just vanity. As we celebrate one of our patron Saints, St. John Vianney on Sunday, let us learn from his virtues and be inspired by his holy life. St. John Vianney spent his whole life in seeking and working for the things that last forever. Recognizing Jesus as the “bread of life”, St. John Vianney determined to follow the footsteps of Jesus in a radical way. On the path to the priesthood, St. John Vianney had faced many challenges and difficulties in his life as well as in his studies. Since, deep down in his heart, he desired to work for the things that last forever, he tirelessly and successfully persevered through all obstacles and trials which had jeopardized his path to the priesthood. Moreover, as a priest, he excelled in all virtues, especially the virtues of patience and compassion. Throughout his priestly life, he worked tirelessly in the confessional and through his penitential life for the salvation of souls. He spent his whole life in laboring not for the perishable “bread” but for the eternal “bread”. Like St. John Vianney, let us seek things which are eternal, let us labor for the salvation of our own souls and the souls of others, let us faithfully come to Jesus on the altar who is the one and only one who can satisfy our infinite thirst and fulfill our infinite hunger. -Fr. Joe Pham

Ministry Book Advertising Opportunity

We have partnered with Guide Book Publishing to provide a Ministry Book for our parish that we will update and publish annually. This book is delivered directly to every member at no cost to our parish. Local businesses are being solicited to advertise in the book, but we want to make sure our members have first access to prime locations in this directory.

This is a great opportunity for your business because our members prefer to support businesses that support our parish. Recent results of a survey taken by GBP show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize an advertiser over a non-advertiser and 70.9% consciously look to see who is advertising. If you are interested in advertising in our Ministry Book, please call the rectory at 856-848-0047. Thank you for your support!

My command is this: Love one other as I have loved you. - John 15:12

From now through the end of August we will be collecting various school supplies for children in need in our area. Backpacks are always a special need. Other supplies needed are notebooks, binders, loose leaf paper, pens, pencils, crayons, scissors, folders, book covers, rulers, etc. All donations can be left in the back of the churches in the St. Vincent DePaul bins. Thank you in advance for any help you can give us. The children appreciate it and it makes going back to school a little easier when you have a brand new backpack full of brand new supplies. Thank you and God Bless!

New Jersey Independent Victims Compensation Program

The Diocese of Camden – along with the other Roman Catholic dioceses in New Jersey – has established an Independent Victim Compensation Program (IVCP) to compensate those who, as children or young adults, were sexually abused by a priest of the Diocese.

The IVCP is independently administered by experienced victim compensation experts Kenneth R. Feinberg and Camille S. Biros.

The IVCP will handle the submission, evaluation and resolution of individual claims, and operates independently of the Diocese or any church-affiliated institution. The administrators of the IVCP have complete autonomy to determine the eligibility of a claim with the guidelines of the established Protocol. The amount of compensation for those who make a claim will be independently determined by the IVCP administrators. All victims – no matter when the abuse occurred – are eligible to participate, and all matters will be handled confidentially.

Victims of clergy sexual abuse of a minor can begin the process of utilizing the program by going to www.njdiocesesivcp.com and reviewing the protocol for submitting a claim.

Bishop Sullivan strongly encourages anyone who was sexually victimized by a priest of the Diocese to participate in the IVCP, and has asked that anyone who knows of someone who was abused to contact them so that they are aware of the IVCP and can participate in it.
