Blessed Mother Statue

Infant Jesus Parish parishioners are invited to schedule a visit to your home from our beautiful statue of Our Blessed Mother. The statue is protected by a hand-crafted wooden case and clear Plexiglas cover (designed and built by Tom Mullholland). The statue includes rosaries and a special prayer card.

To schedule a week with our Blessed Mother statue, contact Patti Graham at (856) 905-4646. The protective case is designed with a carry handle at the top, but it is a bit heavy to carry. If you need assistance loading the statue into your vehicle, or even delivering it to your home, please let us know and arrangements will be made to assist with the delivery and return to the Church.

GOD BLESS AMERICA!

We continue to pray for our men & women overseas especially:
Johanny DelOrbe, Megan Dolan, Justin Gousha, Shawn Jarrell, Becky & Nick Johnson, Rob Solome, Sarah Turse, Joseph Raab and Charles LaGrossa.

If someone has returned home, please let us know.

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In today's Gospel, Jesus specifically stated that he came not to abolish the law but rather he came to fulfill it. He said this because the Pharisees and the Scribes accused him of "breaking" the law of Sabbath by healing the sick and the crippled on the Sabbath. Indeed, Jesus did not "break" or abolish the old law but rather he fulfilled it by adding to it one more "law", the law of love. The Pharisees and the Scribes, the scholars of the law, considered themselves righteous since they kept every single letter of the law for the sake of the law while ignoring the spirit of the law. That is the reason why Jesus condemned them: "Unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Pharisees and of the Scribes, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven". According to the law: "You shall not kill; and whoever kills will be liable to judgement". However, according to Jesus, one does not have to kill in order to violate this law but rather: "Whoever is angry with his brother will be liable to judgement". The spirit of the law is love, the purpose of the law is to prevent one from violating the law of love rather than to violate the "letter" of the law. To be righteous in the eyes of God is to keep and live the spirit of the law and not the letter of the law. How often do we keep God's law, the Ten Commandments, and the teachings of His Church just for the sake of the law? "If I don't kill, don't steal, don't commit adultery... I am alright and righteous". Or "since the church's law states that as a catholic one must go to church on Sundays and Holy Days of obligation, I don't need to go to daily Masses even if I live next door to the church and have free time". Look at Jesus and see how he treated us from the beginning, he did not treat us according to the "letter" of the law but according to the law of love. The letter of the law condemned us but the law of love redeemed us. Now Jesus expects us to worship him and to live his teachings with the same spirit, that is, the spirit of the law and not the letter of the law. Fr. Joe Pham
