GOD BLESS AMERICA!

We continue to pray for our men & women overseas especially:

Johanny DelOrbe, Megan Dolan, Justin Gousha, Shawn Jarrell, Becky & Nick Johnson, Daniel Petite, Rob Solome, Sarah Turse, Joseph Raab and Charles LaGrossa.

If someone has returned home, please let us know.

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Upon review of the current state emergency procedures in NJ, and the closure of all schools including St. Margaret's, we have made a decision to CLOSE the SVDP Infant Jesus Food Pantry until further notice.

Additionally, we will NOT be preparing and distributing Easter baskets as planned, but will postpone to a SUMMER FOOD BASKET contingent upon the health and well being of the community.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

There are a couple of things in today's Gospel which should be taken to heart for reflection. This Gospel is about the story of Lazarus who was dead for four days in the tomb but was raised back to life by Jesus. When Jesus was at the tomb, the first thing he said: "Take away the stone". Why did he say that? He could raise the dead to life but could not move the stone himself? Absolutely that is not the case. Moreover, Jesus' purpose of raising Lazarus from death to life is not meant just for this "earthly life" but rather it is essentially meant for the "spiritual life". If it was meant only to raise Lazarus from his "physical death to life", then Jesus would not ask to remove the stone from the tomb; he would do it himself. However, when asking someone to remove the physical stone which closed Lazarus' tomb, Jesus also signified the spiritual implication of the "stone" of selfishness, hatred, resentment, or hardening of heart which closes one's heart and mind from being receptive to God's Word and being healed, touched, restored, and transformed by his transforming power in the Sacraments.

After the stone was removed, Jesus then called Lazarus by name: "Lazarus, come out!" This also has a spiritual significance which signifies the Sacrament of Baptism. At Baptism, we were called by name, "Mary or Joseph, I baptize you...", to come out of the "tomb" of original sin, to be raised back to new life in Christ.

Unfortunately, due to our sins, we return and are buried in the "tomb" again after being raised from Baptism just like Lazarus who also later died again. However, the problem is not about being buried in the "tomb" again through sin; but rather it is about the willingness to remove the "stone". As we come to an end of Lent, are we willing to remove the "stone" which closes our hearts to Jesus' voice who is constantly calling us to "come out" of the "tomb" and being raised up to new life? -Fr. Joe Pham

Blessed Mother Statue

Infant Jesus Parish parishioners are invited to schedule a visit to your home from our beautiful statue of Our Blessed Mother. The statue is protected by a hand-crafted wooden case and clear Plexiglas cover (designed and built by Tom Mullholland). The statue includes rosaries and a special prayer card.

To schedule a week with our Blessed Mother statue, contact Patti Graham at (856) 905-4646. The protective case is designed with a carry handle at the top, but it is a bit heavy to carry. If you need assistance loading the statue into your vehicle, or even delivering it to your home, please let us know and arrangements will be made to assist with the delivery and return to the Church.

Parish Survey

In an effort to improve our worship and ministries, we are conducting a brief survey to get your input on what we could do better or differently at the parish. Please help us understand how we can better serve you, your family and our neighbors.

The survey can be accessed on the parish website at

www.TheInfantJesusParish.org

We realize that the needs and concerns of the faithful may be different for each age group so we encourage each member of your family to fill in a separate survey.

Paper copies of the survey are available at the rectory.
