Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We should learn two essential points in today's Gospel which would be so helpful in our spiritual life.

First of all, the Gospel tells us that, after the death of Jesus Christ, two of his disciples were on the journey to Emmaus. On the road they were discussing about what happened to Jesus in Jerusalem. They felt confused, afraid, weary, and maybe hopeless at the death of their Master. However, Jesus did not abandon them, he accompanied them on the journey and even joined in their conversation but they still failed to recognize him. Like these two disciples, our life on earth is a journey to the Kingdom of God. On this journey, we sometimes feel confused, anxious, weary, hopeless, and even losing the desire to live due to a sudden death of a loved one, a change in our job, in our relationship, or a tragic incidence happened in our lives or in the life of our loved one. We feel like we are walking alone on the road. Just like the two disciples, we feel like God is not with us or accompanying us in time of difficulty. After listening to the explanation of what happened in Jerusalem from the two disciples, Jesus was so frustrated by saying: "Oh, how foolish you are! How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke!" Then Jesus opened their minds with his interpretation of the Scriptures. In the same way, we need to allow Jesus to speak to us through his words in the Scriptures, we need to talk to Jesus through our reflections, meditations, and prayers, so that he would help us to understand what is going on in our lives or our families in the perspective of God's will and providential care.

Secondly, "While he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him." Here, Jesus chose the moment of the breaking of the bread to reveal himself to the two disciples. In the same manner, whenever we gather together for the breaking of bread on the Altar, Jesus would be present in our midst. Therefore, the Eucharistic celebration is the most tangible way for us to touch the invisible Jesus, it is the ultimate way for us to be intimately united with him on earth. Fr. Joe Pham

WITH PROFOUND GRATITUDE
For
YOUR WEEKLY SUNDAY & EASTER OFFERINGS

In the name of the Risen Christ, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to all of you for your faithfulness of giving. Your Weekly Sunday and Easter Offerings are greatly appreciated especially during this difficult time. It is sad that our communal worship has to be suspended—however our parish's operational expenses are still incurred. Therefore, every financial offering is so meaningful and essential to the life of our parish. I am truly grateful to you for continuing your financial support during this tough time. Be assured that your financial sacrifices during this time will not be passed away without God's notice. May many graces and blessings be bestowed upon you and your families during this Easter Season. Fr. Joe Pham.

Bishop Dennis Sullivan has requested that the laity and clergy of the Diocese of Camden use the following prayer in their daily lives and private celebrations of the Mass as we continue to pray for relief from the effects of the coronavirus. The prayer, written by a priest of the diocese, was first distributed on March 13th:

DIOCESE OF CAMDEN

Coronavirus Prayer

Lord Jesus, you heal the sick.

We pray that the coronavirus that has affected so many in our world can be contained, controlled, and cured.

We lift up to your mercy all those affected, all those working hard to study and cure this illness, and all health care professionals and emergency management teams that are working day and night to keep us safe.

Help us, Lord, to trust in your merciful care.

Lord Jesus, hear our prayer.

Amen

IN GOD WE TRUST

It has been more than a month since the stay-at-home mandate. Each one of us is feeling frustrated and anxious to get back to our normal lives. In the meantime, there are many unanswered questions and concerns pervading our minds which inevitably have caused doubt, anxiety, and fear in our hearts. During these difficult and challenging times, no one is answering our questions and concerns or giving us hope and peace except our Lord Jesus Christ who is the answer for everything: "Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink, or about your body what you will wear. Can any of you by worrying add a single moment to your life-span? If God so clothes the grass of the field, which grows today and is thrown into the oven tomorrow, will he not much more provide for you, O you of little faith?" (Matt 6:25-30). Therefore, let us entrust our unknown future to God's providential care and: "Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make our requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus." (Phil 4:6-7). Blessed are those who believe for they will receive. Fr. Joe Pham.
