#WHATSMYNAME

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

“Who do people say that the Son of Man is?” asked Jesus in today’s Gospel. When Jesus asked his disciples this question, they replied: “Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah, or one of the prophets”, Surprisingly, Jesus did not seem to be interested or care so much about what others said about him; rather he emphasized: “But who do you say that I am?” Then Peter quickly responded: “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God”. The disciples had followed Jesus for years, they had heard Jesus’s teaching by their own ears, they had seen Jesus performing miraculous deeds by their own eyes, they had eaten at the same table with Jesus; therefore Jesus wanted to know what and how much did they truly know about him.

Today Jesus would ask each one of us the same question: “Who do you say that I am?” Like St. Peter’s answer, Jesus expects a personal response from our hearts. Do we know Jesus only through learning from Catholic school or Religious Education and so, knowing him as an “informational” Jesus? Or do we know Jesus only by going to church, receiving the Sacraments and so knowing him as a “religious” Jesus? If we only know the “informational” Jesus or “religious” Jesus, we are “building” our faith-foundation on “sands”. Jesus has done so much for us personally. Everyday he is involved in every “part” of our being since without him there is nothing coming into existence, without him nothing is good. Therefore, we should know him not through information or religious practice but rather through his active divine presence in our lives. If we take time to discern and reflect, we would recognize Jesus’ loving care in our relationships with our loved ones, we would recognize him in the “daily bread” at our dinner tables, we would recognize his protective care in everything that is going on in our lives and our families. By only knowing Jesus in this way, our “house” would not be ruined or collapsed when “storm, wind, or flood” comes. Fr. Joe Pham.

Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.
- Matthew 11:28

Mental Illness

No cast or crutches, no injections. Nothing you can see. But he’s still sick. His behavior is strange and unpredictable. Mental Illness. Sometimes you worry he might hurt himself or someone else. The constant tension is hard to live with. When one family member is mentally ill, the whole family suffers.

By listening and helping you sort through your feelings, a Stephen Minister can provide the caring support to keep you going.

HELP NEEDED

There are many state guidelines and requirements that we need to adhere to for COVID19. These include strict capacity restrictions and social distancing at the churches.

Your help is needed to prepare the churches for each Mass as well as to guide the faithful as they arrive for Mass. For each Mass we need:

6 volunteers at St. Margaret Church, and
4 volunteers at St. John Vianney Church.

Thanks again on behalf of everyone at Infant Jesus Parish.

In the name of the Risen Christ, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to all of you for your faithfulness of giving. Your Weekly Sunday Offerings are greatly appreciated especially during this difficult time. It is sad that our communal worship has to be suspended; however our parish's operational expenses are still incurred. Therefore, every financial offering is so meaningful and essential to the life of our parish. I am truly grateful to you for continuing your financial support during this tough time. Be assured that your financial sacrifices during this time will not be passed over without God's notice. May many graces and blessings be bestowed upon you and your families. Fr. Joe Pham.
