Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today's Gospel tells us about the healing of the blind man named Bartimaeus. This blind man did not see Jesus but he heard of his coming. He did not want to lose his chance but rather crying out and begging Jesus to heal him: "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me." Many people even tried to silence him but he was calling the more. When Jesus asked him: "What do you want me to do". He replied: "Master, I want to see". All he wanted was to be able to see the light and the real world in which he lived. He had been living in darkness and the shadow of his imagination of the real world; therefore, deep down in his heart, he desired to know the "true, the real world" beyond the veil of darkness in his eyes.

Thank God for the gift of our eyes; however it doesn't mean that we are seeing the "true, the real world" beyond this earthly world. We may not need the healing of our physical eyes; but perhaps our spiritual eyes need healing so that we might be able to see: "the way, the truth, and the life" beyond this illusive world.

Maybe we should pray the same "prayer" of the blind man everyday: "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me...I want to see". I want to see your suffering in the sufferings of my loved ones. I want to see your hunger and thirst for food and drink, love and care, consolation and comfort, peace and forgiveness in my neighbors. I want to see your loneliness in the elderly, the homebound, and the forgotten. I want to see you in all that I say and do. Lord, Jesus help me to see! Fr. Joe Pham.

FACES OF HOPE

"Be compassionate as your heavenly Father is compassionate" (Luke 6:36).

As we have been through the hardship of the current pandemic, I believe that it has had a great financial impact upon every one of us. However, as Christians, we are called to be compassionate like our Father in heaven, that is, to reach out and share the burdens of those who are less fortunate than us. For this reason, I am earnestly appealing to each one of you for your generous gifts to the House of Charity. Your sacrificial gifts during this challenging time would be so meaningful and essential to these compassionate ministries in our Diocese:

- Care and Education of Seminarians
- Care of Elderly Priests
- Social & Community Services
- Compassionate Outreach
- Catholic Education
- Youth and Campus Ministry
- Vitality Catholic Healthcare Services

As the theme for this year's House of Charity is "Faces of Hope", let us embrace this theme by sacrificing our financial means to support the above ministries since so many people are putting their "Faces of Hope" in them.

Please make a check payable to "House of Charity-Bishop Annual Appeal". You may drop it in the collection basket at any weekend Mass or mail it to the rectory. My profound gratitude is extended to all of you for your sacrifices and your willingness to support this noble cause. Fr. Joe Pham.

Parish Goal - $136,900.00
Received - 307 gifts - $121,472.13

GOD BLESS YOU
For
YOUR WEEKLY SUNDAY OFFERINGS

In Jesus's name, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to all of you for your Weekly Sunday Offerings. Some of you who are unable to attend Sunday Mass in-person; but your love of God's church and your spirit of sacrifice inspired you to continue your giving. Again, please accept my sincere appreciation and gratitude for continuing your financial support of our parish. Be assured that your sacrifices will not be passed over without God's notice. May you and your loved ones be safe in God's providential care. -Fr. Joe Pham.

Blessed Mother Statue

Infant Jesus Parish parishioners are invited to schedule a visit to your home from our beautiful statue of Our Blessed Mother. The statue is protected by a hand-crafted wooden case and clear Plexiglas cover (designed and built by Tom Mullholland). The statue includes rosaries and a special prayer card.

To schedule a week with our Blessed Mother statue, contact Patti Graham at (856) 905-4646. The protective case is designed with a carry handle at the top, but it is a bit heavy to carry.
