DIOCESE OF CAMDEN
Office of the Vicar for Clergy

January, 2022

Dear Parishioner:

Father Joseph Pham will be completing his six year term as pastor of Infant Jesus Parish, Woodbury Heights. It is the practice in the Diocese of Camden to conduct an evaluation of the pastor before the Priest Personnel Board makes a recommendation to Bishop Sullivan for possibly renewing the pastor's term for an additional six years.

The results of the evaluation will be shared with your pastor by the local Dean and a member of the Priest Personnel Board, so that he can hear about the fruits of his labors and/or to see areas where growth is needed.

We invite all of the members of the parish community to participate in this evaluation in the spirit of prayer, asking you to be honest and charitable. All surveys must be completed no later than January 28th. To complete the evaluation, please go to the following link. If you are not able to complete the survey online, a printed copy is available at the rectory.

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/FrJosephPham>

Thank you for your willingness to participate in this important ministry.

Sincerely/Sinceramente,

Reverend Nicholas Dudo
Vicar for Clergy/Vicario del Clero

2021-2022 Church Missals

The 2022 missals are now in the pews. If you would like a personal missal to take home and bring with you each week, they will be available in the back of church for $10.00 each.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord which is also the end of the Christmas Season. Jesus took upon himself our human nature at Christmas so he could represent us and to act on our behalf before the heavenly Father. For this reason, He underwent the baptism by water in order to sanctify the water making it a sign of purification of sins and restoration of new life in God.

However, Jesus' "real baptism" was not the baptism by water but the baptism by his own blood on the cross. At our Lord's Baptism, God the Father revealed himself through his voice and testified Jesus as his beloved Son who came to do the Father's will by redeeming humanity from eternal damnation and restoring man's original holiness which was lost through the original sin: "You are my beloved Son, with you I am well pleased" (Luke 3: 22).

Today we are also reminded of our own baptism, a divine gift freely given to us by God's infinite mercy. At baptism, there are couple things happen: sanctification and transformation. Through baptism, one receives the sanctifying grace which "takes away" the original sin, in the meantime, the likeness or holiness of God in one's soul is also restored. As baptized people, we are chosen to know God and to love God in a very personal way. It is indeed a divine gift freely given to us which enables us to be intimately united with God through our prayers and worship. Unfortunately, there are some taking this precious gift for granted by turning away from God or not worshipping Him regularly.

It is a blessing to know God in this life, a privilege to be baptized, it is always good to have God on our side whether in good times or in bad, in sickness or in health. Indeed, it is a necessity to have God in our lives especially in this finite and unpredictable world, since there will be some day that no human beings would be able to help us to change, to heal, or to make the impossible possible except God alone for whom nothing is impossible. -Fr. Joe Pham

“Human rights are not a privilege conferred by government. They are every human being’s entitlement by virtue of humanity. The right to life does not depend, and must not be contingent, on the pleasure of anyone else, not even a parent or sovereign...you must weep that your own government, at present, seems blind to the truth.”

Blessed Mother Statue

Infant Jesus Parish parishioners are invited to schedule a visit to your home from our beautiful statue of Our Blessed Mother. The statue is protected by a hand-crafted wooden case and clear Plexiglas cover (designed and built by Tom Mullholland). The statue includes rosaries and a special prayer card.

To schedule a week with our Blessed Mother statue, contact Patti Graham at (856) 905-4646. The protective case is designed with a carry handle at the top, but it is a bit heavy to carry. If you need assistance loading the statue into your vehicle, or even delivering it to your home, please let us know and arrangements will be made to assist with the delivery and return to the Church.
