Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Whenever we say “this person” is good, it is not simply because he or she doesn’t do any bad; but rather that person must do something good in order to be called good. In the same way in order to be called good and faithful disciples of Christ, we do not just avoid doing bad things or sinning but rather we should do whatever Jesus commands us to do: “To you who hear I say, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you.” said Jesus in today’s Gospel.

Therefore; in order to be called good and faithful children of God, we must strip off our selfishness and even act against our sinful nature. Our selfishness and sinful nature tell us to love those who love us and to do good to those who do good to us. However, what good is that? As Jesus said: “For if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do the same.” As faithful followers of Christ, we are called to change, to be different, to be the salt of the earth, to be Christ-like to others even to our enemies.

Living our lives this way, we would be true to our new identity and dignity as children of God and also be faithful to our entrusted divine mission as disciples of Christ on earth. Jesus asks us to love your enemies because we once were enemies of God, to do good to those who hate you and curse you because we once hated and cursed Jesus when he was nailed on the cross. Therefore, this is not too much to ask of us, but rather we just repay what we owe God. Also, Jesus does not ask us to do something beyond our ability to do. When he said “love your enemies”, it doesn’t mean “hug your enemies or kiss your enemies” but rather don’t hate them, don’t pursue retribution, don’t hold resentment against them. Instead keep praying for them, praying for their change of heart, for their conversion, for their repentance. With the help of the Holy Spirit, let us forgive and pray for our enemies so that they would come to know that we are the disciples of Jesus Christ. Fr. Joe Pham

The 40 Days for Life Spring Campaign is asking for volunteers to sign up to pray in presence March 2nd - April 10, 2022. By the abortion industry's own admission, the "no show" rate for women not keeping their appointments goes up as high as 75% when there is someone outside praying. Your mere presence can mean the difference between life and death.

Hope after abortion:

It's common but often unspoken - to grieve the loss of a child by abortion. Be assured that there is forgiveness, hope and healing. Many women & men have participated in diocesan Project Rachel Ministries and been transformed by God's merciful love.

If you or someone you know is suffering after abortion, confidential, non-judgmental help is available from Project Rachel Ministry. Visit the "Find Help" map on HopeAfterAbortion.org to find the nearest diocesan ministry. Spanish speakers may visit EsperanzaPosAborto.org.

Project Rachel is a ministry of the Catholic Church, open to all people of all faiths, or no faith in the U.S. to those who have been involved in abortion. It is a diocesan-based network of specially trained priests, religious, counselors, and laypersons who provide a team response of care for those suffering in the aftermath of abortion. In addition to referring for Sacramental Reconciliation, the ministry provides an integrated network of services, including pastoral counseling, support groups, retreats and referrals to licensed mental health professionals. Love & healing await.

For example if you are studying for a college exam, hoping for career advancement, having problems making a difficult decision, or looking for strength for a sick family member, you can ask Mary Undoer of Knots to intercede for you. Mary Undoer of Knots is one of Pope Francis' favorites too.
