Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Every one of us are familiar with the Gospel today, the story of the Good Samaritan. The Gospel tells us that a scholar of the law asked Jesus: “Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” This man knew the law by heart, he tried to keep every letter of the law but he was still afraid of missing something which would prevent him from achieving eternal life. In responding to his question, Jesus asked him to repeat what was written in the law: “You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.” Since he was so “strict” himself to the “law”, he again asked Jesus to explain specifically “who is considered to be my neighbor”. For this reason, Jesus gave the parable of the Good Samaritan.

There are three main characters in this parable: the priest, Levite, and Samaritan. For the priest and Levite, both of them were on the way to the temple to perform their priestly duties, and when seeing the robbery victim laying on the side road like a “dead body”, they tried to avoid him because they observed the law strictly which banned them from performing priestly duties if they touched “things” considered by the law to be “impure”. However, a Samaritan, a pagan, who knew nothing about the law, was moved with compassion and mercy “poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn, and cared for him”.

According to the priest and Levite in this story, their religion was “a bunch of ritual and law”; whereas the Samaritan’s “religion” was “mercy and compassion”. How often do we fall into this “Levitical trap” by keeping the “letter of the law” instead of the “spirit of the law”. For such a person, his or her God is the law and not love, a religion to be kept rather than to be loved and lived.

-Fr. Joe Pham

Summertime is here, the children are home from school and having breakfast and lunch at home. Many families are still struggling and we are still making front porch food deliveries. Our pantry was open twice in the month of June and we had 15-20 visitors. We will be open twice a month in July and August and we expect roughly the same amount of visitors. Please help us keep the pantry stocked for the summer. We could use items such as mac & cheese, peanut butter & jelly, Chef Boyardee ravioli, snack items such as granola bars, crackers, popcorn, nutrigrain bars or breakfast bars, or any of the usual non perishables. Thank you in advance for the kindness and compassion that you always show to our friends in need and our ministry. Have a wonderful summer!

Ministry Book Advertising Opportunity

We are in the process of updating our annual Ministry Book for the parish. This book will contain everything pertinent to our parish: the various ministries, organizations, committees, activities, functions and events. This book is being provided and direct-mailed to each family at no cost to our parish, and it is again being subsidized by local businesses that advertise. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the Parish Office 856-848-0047 and leave your name and number for the Ministry Book Account Executive.

Recent survey results by Guide Book Publishing show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Ministry Book advertiser over a non-advertiser. It “will pay” to advertise in our new Ministry Book.
