Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As our nation observes Labor Day this weekend, we, as Christians, should celebrate it not just as a civil event but also a religious significance as well. From the beginning of creation, God intended to create a perfect world with everything in it including humanity; however human beings misused the God-given power of free will therefore sin entered the world and human labor was one of the consequences of this original sin: “Because of what you have done, the ground will be under a curse. You will have to work hard all your life to make it produce enough food for you”. (Gen 3:17).

However, thanks be to God for his unconditional love and infinite mercy, he sent his only Son, Jesus Christ, to redeem humanity and to reconcile all creation to himself. By this virtue of the redemptive act of his Son, God transformed the “curse” of human labor into “blessing”.

Therefore, our labor now has a redemptive meaning which means our daily labor is a pro-creation with God which makes this fallen world a better place everyday. Our labor now is like Jesus Christ’s work in the economy of salvation which is both human and divine. His work was human since it was involved in his human sacrifice and divine because it was involved in the salvation of souls. By his redemptive work, Jesus also gave to our human labor a twofold meaning as well: human and divine. Working in order to support our human needs and, in the mean time, to “co-remake” God’s creation for the better. Let us thank God for allowing us to be part of his “re-creation”.

We thank God for the success of the work of our hands, and ultimately thank God for transforming human labor into divine labor, a “curse” into a “blessing”. -Fr. Joe Pham

Happy Labor Day to All
