Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In today's Gospel, Jesus was so disheartened by the ungratefulness of the nine lepers who were healed by Jesus. "Ten were cleansed were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?"

This Gospel is a daily reminder for every one of us. When was the last time we said: "Thank you Lord, Jesus"? Imagine, even we live a thousand years, we still don't have enough time to thank God for all that He has given us and the many things he has done for us. Indeed, every breathe we breath, every day we live, every time we eat or drink, every person in our family is a blessing from God and embraced by his providential care.

However, everyday, these blessings are often being taken for granted. When we look around us, we see people who are sick, hospitalized, hungry, broken, lonely, suffering, and dying. Have we ever thought that it could be me or it could be my loved ones: mother, father, wife, husband, son, daughter, brother, or sister? But why not? Because it is all due to God's blessings and providential care: "Ten were cleansed were they not?" All ten lepers were healed, we are all blessed everyday and cared for everyday by God. Therefore we should not be ungrateful to God, we should return, at the end of every single day, taking a few minutes to say: "Lord, Jesus I thank you with all my heart for a day passed by and I am still here with my family or my loved ones are still here with me. I still have food on the table, I am still able to laugh and enjoy the night with my loved ones".

We truly owe our gratitude to God in every big and small things, even the most miserable person, the most unfortunate person in the world, still owes gratitude to God for his or her own existence which would make it possible for that person to inherit eternal life and happiness with God in heaven. -Fr. Joe Pham

Understanding the Mass

Part 2

The Liturgy of the Word

The Lectionary

At the Second Vatican Council, the Lectionary was developed based on studies that had been made of the early Church. Christians in the first centuries after Christ adapted the Jewish synagogue service for the celebration of the Eucharist. Like their Jewish elders, the Church chose continuous readings from the Law and the Prophets adding to them the letters of Paul and the stories of Jesus found in the Gospels.

Certain readings were assigned to particular festive celebrations or to places of pilgrimage commemorating the life of Christ.

The current Lectionary provides a continuous reading of the Sacred Scriptures—a three-year cycle for Sundays and a two-year cycle for week days. Each year of the Sunday cycle focuses on a particular Gospel (Matthew—A; Mark—B; and Luke—C). Passages from the Gospel of John appear at different times in all three years.

You may realize that the first readings and responsorial psalms were selected to highlight some aspect of the Gospel for the day. The second readings are generally a continuous reading from a particular letter of Saint Paul or another of the pastoral letters. During the Easter Season, the first reading comes from the Acts of the Apostles and the second reading sometimes from the Book of Revelation.

The Ministry of Lector

The Lector or Reader has a vital role in the Liturgy of the Word. He or she is charged with the responsibility of proclaiming the Word of God. As such, they must be excellent readers who study the Scriptural texts and prepare to proclaim them by practicing. Since the Church teaches that it is Christ who speaks to us in the Word, all in the assembly should be able to hear and understand the readings when proclaimed without having to rely on reading a written text.

What is the Ambo?

The ambo is the place from which the readings, the responsorial psalm, the Gospel and homily are proclaimed. The Ambo is the Altar of the Word. It is to be substantial in nature and similar in design to the altar and sanctuary furniture and distinguished from a lectern or podium from which announcement are made or songs are led.

Silence is Key

The General Instructions of the Roman Missal encourage moments of silence after each reading so as to promote prayer and meditation through which each listener may hear the voice of the Lord. We must remember that we are not listening to “historical” narratives—the Lord is speaking to us today and now in this very moment.

The First Reading

As noted earlier, the first reading is taken from the Jewish Scriptures—the Law, Prophets, Wisdom Literature or the Historical Books. This reading usually foreshadows in some way the text of the Gospel to be read at the same Mass. In this way, the assembly comes to know that God has worked His salvation through history—in real people, like us.

During the Easter Season, the First Reading is taken from a continuous reading of the Acts of the Apostles so that we recall how the Holy Spirit gathered people of many languages and backgrounds into the community of the Church.

The Responsorial Psalm

The Psalms are the Hymn Book of the Church and in them are expressed the spectrum of human emotions. They are used in the context of the Liturgy of the Word to help us realize that, through generations, believers have sung these words making of them their own prayer to God...i.e. the Lord is my Shepherd, there is nothing I shall want.

The Second Reading

The second reading is usually taken from one of the Letters of Saint Paul or another of the Pastoral Letters of the New Testament. While the second reading does not intentionally connect to the first reading or the Gospel, it describes for us the wisdom offered by the Church's early pastors to their communities which, like ours today, struggled to understand how to apply Christian teachings to daily life. The response to both the first and second reading is: Thanks be to God—as we praise and thank God for speaking to us.

The Gospel Acclamation

The "Alleluia" which is sung during most of the liturgical year is not just a song—it is an action of the assembly by which we stand to welcome Christ, present in the Good News, with great joy. This acclamation is so important that the Roman Missal requires that it must always be sung, not recited.

During the Season of Lent, the Alleluia is not sung in anticipation of its announcing the Resurrection at Easter when of necessity the Alleluia is sung repeatedly. In Lent, a phrase praising Christ present in the Gospel are sung.

Alleluia!

The Proclamation of the Gospel

So important is the Proclamation of the Gospel that it is surrounded by rituals which are outlined below:

Change in Posture—with the singing of the Gospel Acclamation, the assembly stands. Standing is always a sign of the Resurrection and invites us to actively listen to the Words of the Gospel.

The Opening Dialogue—the deacon or priest proclaiming the Gospel informs us that it is Christ who speaks to us directly. The Lord be with you. And with your spirit (words addressed to Christ). A reading from the holy gospel according to N. Glory to you, O Lord (notice the you is likewise addressed to Christ). Christ then speaks to us today and now.

The Sign of the Cross—the act of making the sign of the cross three times (forehead, lips and breast) is a ritual gesture that we don't think about but it imitates what the deacon or priest does as they pray: "May the Lord be in my mind, on my lips and in my heart that I may worthily proclaim the holy gospel." Proclaim it in word and deed today and throughout the week.

The Book of the Gospels—The Gospels are so precious that they are collected in a Book separate from the other readings. The Gospels are of primary importance in the life of a Christian and are the lens through which we interpret all of the Sacred Scriptures. The Book of the Gospels may be highly decorated or be encased in a decorative cover.

The Gospel Procession—so important is the proclamation of the Gospel that the Book itself is carried with honor and dignity from the altar to the ambo. Like all processions, this is a moment for the assembly to be unified in its focus.

Other Reverences at the Gospel—the Book of the Gospel and proclamation of the Gospel are revered by being accompanied by candles, and on special occasions, by the use of incense. In addition, the page on which the Gospel is recorded is reverently kissed by the deacon, priest or bishop. And when the bishop presides at liturgy, he may bless the assembly with the Book of the Gospels after the proclamation of the Gospel.

The Proclamation—the words of Christ spoken to the assembly are generally proclaimed in spoken word. However, on special occasions, the words are sung to highlight their importance and to encourage attentive listening by the assembly.

The Homily

After the proclamation of the Gospel, the presider is charged with the responsibility of addressing the assembly—connecting the words proclaimed to the Christian life. Homilies require preparation but the faithful need to remember that not all priests and deacons are gifted orators. The homily is not intended to be entertainment, it is a serious call to believers encouraging them to live the Gospel.

The Profession of Faith

Again, the Church proclaims its unity by together stating what we believe in common.

The Prayer of the Faithful

The most immediate response to hearing the Word of God proclaimed and restating the tenets of our Faith is through the action of prayer. These Universal Prayers are not announcements, they are prayers offered for the Church in general, civil authorities, for common needs, for the poor, the sick and for those who have died.

The Kings Men meet every Saturday morning in the Ministry Center from 7:00 AM to 8:30 AM.

During our meeting we discuss our successes and struggles as Catholic men as it relates to our daily battle to grow as men of God and be the leaders and protectors of our families that God created us to be. We hold each other accountable by confessing our weaknesses. We challenge each other to persevere with the help of God's grace in our ongoing struggle for masculine holiness.

For those men who are interested but are not necessarily morning people, we will be adding week night meetings on the last Tuesday of each month. The next three Tuesday night meeting will be October 25, November 29 and December 27. They will be held in the Ministry Center from 7:00 PM to 8:30 PM

A CALL TO PRAYER AND FASTING FOR OUR COUNTRY

*Before you vote on November 8th, join us in a Novena of Prayer and Fasting
OCTOBER 31ST TO NOVEMBER 8TH*

Each day during the novena pray the Patriotic Rosary with your family, or join us at St. Margaret Church after the 8:30 AM Mass.

Please also consider "give-up" something special for the protection of our country.

May the Holy Spirit guide us to vote for candidates that will uphold God's law.

COME HOLY SPIRIT

fill the hearts of your faithful and enkindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And you will renew the face of the earth.

October is RESPECT LIFE Month

The Baby Bottles for Life campaign will be held following every Mass Saturday and Sunday 10/15 and 16. Please consider taking a baby bottle to fill with any amount for the National Life Center, 1st Way crisis pregnancy service office, and headquarters for the National Crisis Pregnancy hotline at 686 N. Broad St., Woodbury. This office is in the midst of efforts to purchase a new ultrasound machine. God bless your generosity.

Respect for Life is true for all stages of life; from birth to natural death. Please consider following: Prolife at Infant Jesus Parish on FB.

PRAISE GOD FOR THE OVERTURNING OF ROE VS. WADE!

However, locally there is much work to do. There are more abortions happening now at the Cherry Hill Women's Center than before because women are coming from out of state. A staff member of the CHWC said they are seeing 35-40 out of state clients each week now.

Prayerful presence outside an abortion clinic has been proven to impact "no show" rates for abortion appointments up to 75%. Our presence is vital for women who may have last minute doubts. On the last day of August volunteers spoke with a mother who had come from Florida and she chose life for her baby instead!

Join us for our Fall 40 DAYS FOR LIFE campaign from September 28th -November 6th. Our goal is to have two people pray peacefully each hour 7AM – 7PM, six days a week, for the duration of the campaign.

We are especially in need of new volunteers for afternoon hours beginning at noon-1. Can you spare one hour per week to witness for LIFE? Ask your spouse or a friend to join you. Nobody should be there alone.

Please register and sign up at www.40daysforlife.com/cherryhill

If you have questions or concerns, need a prayer partner or have any difficulty signing up online, call or text Claire at 856-313-9861 or email claire@helpersnj.org.
