Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In the Month of November, the Church encourages us to pray for all the souls of the faithful departed who are still in a state of purification. The Church assures us that the time of these souls in purgatory can be shortened through our prayers, Mass offerings, and acts of charity.

During this solemn month, we should remember the dead, especially, our loved ones who preceded us to eternity. Living in this busy world, we may easily forget our dead and especially those from whom we have received nourishment, whom we have received so many gifts and shared so many memories: "It is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead..." (2 Maccabees 12:46).

Remember, the essence of our Religion is "Communion". We are constantly in communion with God and with one another. We are in communion with the Saints in heaven, with the living on earth, and with the dead in purgatory. As the Saints who are in the presence of God praying for us, for the living, and for the holy souls in purgatory, we too are obliged to pray for the dead. The best, precious, and meaningful gift we can give to our beloved dead and all the souls is our prayers and our offering of the Holy Eucharist, the sacrifice of Christ for the salvation of all.

When was the last time you offered the Holy Mass or prayed for your deceased father, mother, husband, wife, sister, brother, son, daughter, relatives or friends? When was the last time you went visiting the graves of your loved ones and said a few prayers for them? Let us show our love and gratitude for our loved ones who are no longer with us during this commemorative month of all souls.

May the souls of our loved ones and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the loving mercy of God, rest in peace. -Fr. Joe Pham

THE KINGS MEN

The Kings Men meet every Saturday morning in the Ministry Center from 7:00 AM to 8:30 AM.

During our meeting we discuss our successes and struggles as Catholic men as it relates to our daily battle to grow as men of God and be the leaders and protectors of our families that God created us to be. We hold each other accountable by confessing our weaknesses. We challenge each other to persevere with the help of God's grace in our ongoing struggle for masculine holiness.

For those men who are interested but are not necessarily morning people, we will be adding week night meetings on the last Tuesday of each month. The next two Tuesday night meetings will be November 29 and December 27. They will be held in the Ministry Center from 7:00 PM to 8:30 PM

If you have any questions, please contact Walt Baraniewicz (waltb0127@yahoo.com)

In Jesus's name, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to all of you for your weekly offerings. Some of you who are unable to attend Sunday Mass in-person; but your love of God's church and your spirit of sacrifice inspired you to continue giving. Please accept my sincere appreciation and gratitude for continuing your financial support of our parish. Be assured that your sacrifices will not be passed over without God's notice. May you and your loved ones be blessed in God's providential care.

November 9th @ 6:30 PM in St Margaret's Church

The St. Vincent DePaul Society will be running our annual Coat Drive this weekend November 5th & 6th. We will be collecting new or gently used coats for men, women, and children in all sizes. Hopefully we can get ahead of the cold weather and those in need will be well prepared when the cold weather hits. All donations can be left in the back of the churches in or around the St. Vincent DePaul bins. Thank you in advance for the generosity we can always count on from our parishioners.

The holidays are fast approaching and we are starting to plan our annual holiday food baskets. It is never too early for us to start collecting and putting aside some of the specialty foods that we need on top of the every day foods that we also need. Items such as cranberry sauce, stuffing, gravy, canned yams, applesauce are all items that we will need at the holidays as well as the usual canned fruits and veggies, cereal, canned tuna, canned chicken, pasta & sauce, chef boyardee items, crackers, pop tarts, cake mix, granola bars, etc. are foods that we need on hand for our food pantry nights as well as the holidays. Thank you for all of your donations and gifts to our ministry and families in need. This is our busy time of year and we are very grateful for your support.

Understanding the Mass

Part 6

The Concluding Rites

Before delving into the Concluding Rites of the Mass, we need to finish the Rite of Communion. We left off with returning to your place after receiving Holy Communion and taking a moment to give thanks to God for Gift of His Son and the salvation He won for us.

Moment of Silence

The General Instructions remind us here of the need for moments of silence in the Liturgy. As it does after the readings and homily, the Missal calls for the priest and the faithful to “spend time praying privately.” A song may be sung at this point, but the same instructions expect that it sung by the whole assembly together as a sign of the communion they now share.

The Prayer After Communion

After a suitable time of private prayer, the priest rises and invites the people to pray. According to the Missal, this prayer has a specific purpose—to pray that the Communion we have just received may bear fruit in our lives, in the Church and for the world.

Announcements

Here is the appropriate time for making announcements. If there are relatively few, the people may remain standing or the presider may ask them to be seated. Announcements should NOT be made as part of the Rite of Communion. However, they may be made before the beginning of Mass.

The Final Blessing

Again, the priest greets the people and the deacon invites them to bow down for the blessing. This blessing may be simple—the Sign of the Cross or it may be enriched on special occasions with a longer solemn prayer of blessing or a four-fold invocation before the Sign of the Cross.

The Dismissal

After the priest makes the Sign of the Cross in blessing, the deacon announces one of several forms of the dismissal—in Latin “Ite Missa est!” Literally, “Go forth, the Mass is ended.” The Latin word “missa” gives us the name for whole Eucharistic Liturgy, the Mass. The other dismissals help us to understand that— “Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord” and “Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life.” The sense here is that we, having heard the Word of the Lord and received the Body and Blood of the Lord, are sent on mission. The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains that “the liturgy in which the mystery of salvation is accomplished concludes with the sending forth (mission) of the faithful, so that they may fulfill God’s will in their daily lives” (CCC 1332). Sharing the mission of Christ, we are sent to use our God-given abilities to evangelize, to comfort and to help build up the Kingdom of God.

concludes with the sending forth (mission) of the faithful, so that they may fulfill God’s will in their daily lives” (CCC 1332). Sharing the mission of Christ, we are sent to use our God-given abilities to evangelize, to comfort and to help build up the Kingdom of God.

Reverence of the Altar

The priest and deacon then moves to the altar and kiss it. This is done, as at the beginning of Mass, out of reverence for the presence of Christ who is himself the altar of sacrifice. The practice derives from the ancient Roman tradition of kissing the entrance to the pagan temples and the Roman family tradition of kissing the table when they sat down to eat. The Church “baptized” these practices by reverencing the altar, which contained a relic of a saint, with a kiss.

Concluding Procession

The priest and other liturgical ministers then gather at the foot of the altar, they genuflect in unison, and then follow the cross in procession to the outside of the church—leading the faithful in the mission to glorify the Lord with their lives.

The Importance of Sacred Music

"The musical tradition of the universal Church is a treasure of inestimable value, greater even than that of any other art. The main reason for this pre-eminence is that, as a combination of sacred music and words, it forms a necessary or integral part of the solemn liturgy" (Sacrosanctum Concilium, no. 112). The composition and singing of inspired psalms, often accompanied by musical instruments, were already closely linked to the liturgical celebrations of the Old Covenant. The Church continues and develops this tradition: "Address . . . one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with all your heart." "He who sings prays twice" (Eph 5:19; St. Augustine, En. in Ps. 72,1:PL 36,914; cf. Col 3:16).

- Catechism of the Catholic Church no. 1156

There is a great need in most American parishes to rekindle the appreciation for sacred music and communal singing. Some cultures, like the Welsh and African American, take great pride in their choral tradition. Lay people can have a great impact on the liturgy by volunteering to join the choir, serve as a cantor, or play an instrument—we are especially in need of young people willing to learn how to play the church organ. The pipe organ has pride of place among all instruments and without competent organists, the Church will lose its liturgical voice.

The liturgy requires authenticity, so the use of recorded music is not permitted. Sacred Music needs to be the product of human activity—by the use of voices and instruments.

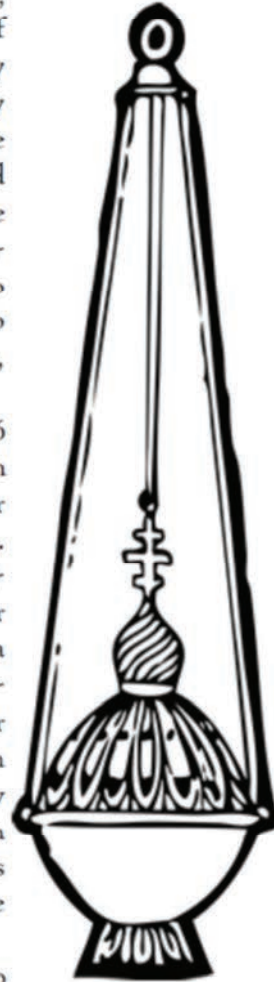

Sacred Music is NOT a performance. In many churches the music ministry is located at the front in the hopes of encouraging the assembly to sing. However for too many, it is seen as a concert that is to be enjoyed not an aid to their participation in singing.

The Tabernacle

In the Old Testament, the People of God wandered in the desert for 40 years. During that time, God made his dwelling among them in a tent or tabernacle. The word tabernacle literally means "dwelling." And so it is in the church that the tabernacle is the place where Christ dwells in the Eucharist.

The tabernacle must be made of solid and opaque material. It must also have a locked door. In the Diocese of Camden it must also be secured by an alarm. All of this is to prevent the Eucharist from being profaned or desecrated. The Blessed Sacrament is kept in the tabernacle for two purposes: in order that the sick may receive Holy Communion, especially if they are dying; and also for private prayer—that any of us may go before the Blessed Sacrament for a time of prayer.

Liturgical Colors

The liturgical life of the Church involves the use of color to signify the meaning of particular seasons and/or celebrations. Green is worn during Ordinary Time (those weeks that are counted). Purple, a sign of penitence, is worn during Advent and Lent as the Church prepares for the important Solemnities of Christmas and Easter. It may also be worn for funerals and on days of penance. White is worn during the Christmas and Easter Seasons and on other feast days that honor Christ, the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Saints who are not martyrs. Red is worn at celebrations of the Passion of Christ, the Holy Spirit, the Holy Cross and on the feast of Saints who are martyrs. Black may also be used on the occasion of Masses for the Dead and funerals.

Incense

The use of incense in ancient religious rites is well documented—to ward off evil spirits and to create a cloud of "mystery." The use of incense in the Catholic liturgy is an adaptation of these ancient uses. For Catholics, incense purifies and blesses the persons and objects that are incensed. At the same time the holy smoke lifts up to heaven and takes with it the prayers of God's people.

Candles

The use of candles in the liturgy was both practical (the need for light) and symbolic—as candles add beauty and solemnity to the Mass. They represent Christ, the Light of the World and our call to bring that light to others. They also serve as a symbol of our prayers—who hasn't lit a candle for a loved one?

CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

In 2000, the Bishops of the United States approved plans for a National Eucharistic Revival with the mission of “renewing the Church by enkindling a living relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist.” The theme of the Revival is: “My Flesh for the life of the World”. This three-year effort will have three phases: (1) Diocesan, (2) Parish, and (3) National.

The Diocesan Phase has already begun on June 19, 2022, the Feast of Corpus Christi. The Parish Phase of the Eucharistic Revival will begin on Corpus Christi Sunday June 11, 2023.

Our parish will begin a year-long celebration of the Eucharistic Revival with block procession of the Holy Eucharist immediately after the 10:00 am Mass on Corpus Christi Sunday June 11, 2023.

Throughout the year of parish phase, we will continue to plan for activities and events which concentrate on the Holy Eucharist:

- A - Reflecting upon the Eucharist as the Paschal Mystery of Christ (His suffering, death, resurrection, and ascension).
- B - Christ is truly, really, and substantially present in the Eucharistic species.
- C - Christ is alive and at work in His Mystical Body, the Church.
- D - Full consciousness and active participation in the Eucharistic Liturgy.
- E - The Eucharistic Sacrifice of the Mass is the source and culmination of the whole Christian life.

Let us take advantage of this Eucharistic Revival to deepen our knowledge and understanding of the Mass. Let us make time to participate in all Eucharistic events, lectures, and Eucharistic Adoration so that our intimate relationship with Jesus in the Eucharist would be strengthened. “Anyone who eats my flesh and drinks my blood will have life eternal”.

Knights of Columbus presents WHEELCHAIR SUNDAY Appeal November 13 & 14, 2022

Since 2003, the Knights of Columbus, through their parish wide fundraising efforts have helped to provide tens of thousands of brand new wheel-chairs to U.S. Veterans, here at home, as well as, children, teens, and adults, all over the world who are in need of mobility, but who could not afford a wheelchair. Please join Fr. Pham and the Knights of Columbus, in coordination with the American Wheelchair Mission, to learn how your donations can sponsor and deliver a wheelchair at no cost to someone in need of mobility.

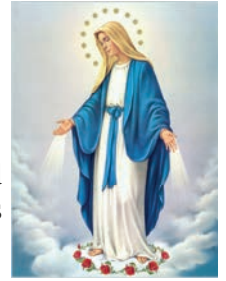

Infant Jesus Parish's Knights of Columbus, St. Margaret's Council, will be conducting a “Wheelchair Sunday Appeal” at all masses starting Saturday, November 13 through Sunday, November 14, 2022. Council representatives will be at all Masses to explain how you can answer the prayers of the needy and poorest of the poor, and help them gain mobility, hope, and freedom. For more detailed information please contact a Knights of Columbus representative at the back of the church the weekend of the appeal.

GLOUCESTER CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

Ram For A Day Visits for prospective students occur every day. If you would like to schedule a visit and tour for your family please email Director of Enrollment Mr. Ryan Murphy at rmurphy@gchsrams.org

The High School Placement Test will be offered at Gloucester Catholic on November 19. Please email Guidance@gchsrams.org to register. The test is open to all current 8th graders and will be used for class placement and scholarship awards.

Blessed Mother Statue

Infant Jesus Parish parishioners are invited to schedule a visit to your home from our beautiful statue of Our Blessed Mother. The statue is protected by a hand-crafted wooden case and clear Plexiglas cover (designed and built by Tom Mullholland). The statue includes rosaries and a special prayer card.

To schedule a week with our Blessed Mother statue, contact Patti Graham at (856) 905-4646. The protective case is designed with a carry handle at the top, but it is a bit heavy to carry. If you need assistance loading the statue into your vehicle, or even delivering it to your home, please let us know and arrangements will be made to assist with the delivery and return to the Church.
