Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In today's Second Reading, St. Paul wrote: "I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us." (Romans 8:18). When saying this, St. Paul did not say it just for the sake of saying; but rather he himself was willing to accept all the sufferings which came into his life for the sake of the truths taught by Jesus Christ.

Encouraged and inspired by St. Paul's words and his good and courageous example of faith in Christ, we should not be afraid of embracing the sufferings in this earthly life. We, of course, don't like suffering; however it is unavoidable because this life is not perfect, everything can go astray at anytime. We rather suffer physically, mentally or morally for the love of God and our neighbor and for the sake of Christ's teachings than betray God's love or give up our faith in Christ. Unfortunately and sadly, for some people, when facing the suffering in world such as illness, betrayal, a loss of loved one, or the sins of others, they turn away from God and stop practicing their faith.

The truth is that whatever suffering it is, it would not last ever, some day it would be gone. However, the glory to be revealed in heaven for those who are faithful to the end is beyond what words could describe and mind could imagine. After all, what matters is the rewards of eternal life and happiness in the glory of heaven. -Fr. Joe Pham

OVEREATERS ANONYMOUS (OA)
MEETING
Mondays at 6 PM, Room B, Ministry Center

A meeting could save a life. Is food a problem for you? OA can help.

Compulsive eaters and those suffering from compulsive food behaviors are invited to a new weekly meeting of Overeaters Anonymous from 6-7PM in the Infant Jesus Parish Ministry Center - Room B, Woodbury Heights. Overeaters Anonymous is not a diet club. There are no dues, fees, or weigh-ins. The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop eating compulsively. OA views compulsive eating as a physical, emotional, and spiritual disease that can be arrested but not cured. Members seek recovery on all three levels by following a Twelve Step program patterned after that of Alcoholics Anonymous. To find out more, go to oa.org or oa-southjersey.org, or call Bob at (856) 685-0019.

THE KINGS MEN

The Kings Men meet every Saturday morning in the Ministry Center from 7:00 AM to 8:30 AM.

During our meeting we discuss our successes and struggles as Catholic men as it relates to our daily battle to grow as men of God and be the leaders and protectors of our families that God created us to be. We hold each other accountable by confessing our weaknesses. We challenge each other to persevere with the help of God's grace in our ongoing struggle for masculine holiness.

If you have any questions, please contact Walt Baraniewicz (waltb0127@yahoo.com)

Ministry Book
Advertising Opportunity

We are in the process of updating our annual Ministry Book for the church. This book will contain everything pertinent to our church: the various ministries, organizations, committees, activities, functions and events. This book is being provided and direct-mailed to each family at no cost to our church, and it is again being subsidized by local businesses that advertise. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the Church Office.

Recent survey results by Guide Book Publishing show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Ministry Book advertiser over a non-advertiser. It "will pay" to advertise in our new Ministry Book.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL

School is out for the summer, and many families that depended on free school breakfasts & lunches are finding it difficult to stock their pantry as prices continue to rise. Please help us to keep our pantry stocked so that we may help our friends in need. We have been opening our pantry twice a month to record numbers of families trying to make ends meet. We can always use kid friendly foods and snacks such as pop tarts, instant breakfast bars, peanut butter & jelly, mac & cheese, canned fruit, applesauce, cereal, canned tuna or chicken, soup, pasta & sauce, as well as our normal non perishable foods. Thank you for your generous donations and gifts to those our ministry serves.

Breakfast Club

The Infant Jesus Breakfast Club will meet at the Hollywood Diner in Woodbury Heights on the second Wednesday of every month immediately following the 8:30AM Mass. Separate checks for all. Questions, ask Neen Raspa 609-230-2929.
