Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Time is counting down as we get closer to the celebration of Christmas, the Birth of the Son of God, our Redeemer. Are we ready to celebrate the birth of our redemption, to rejoice as God and humanity reconciled, and to open wide the door of our hearts for Jesus to enter?

Indeed, the Incarnation of God made man is the beginning of our redemption, our new birth in God's Kingdom, since through the union of God and man in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we all became adopted children of God. The Good News of God and humanity being reconciled and united has been proclaimed from generation to generation. For this reason our hearts must be rejoicing and widely opened in waiting for the Immanuel, God-with-us, to enter.

Unfortunately, there are so many attractions and distractions which often take away the true meaning and the profound depth of Christmas. Our true peace and joy at the Birth of Christ does not depend on spectacular Christmas lights and trees, magnificent nativities, or fanciful Christmas gifts; but rather our true peace and joy at Christmas depends on the divine truths revealed through the mystery of the Incarnation. Our true joy and peace acquired through the knowledge of being redeemed and not condemned, being united in our human sinful nature to the divine nature of God which made possible for us to be called children of God, and ultimately being promised of eternal life and happiness in the heavenly kingdom.

Let the peace and joy of Christmas replace our anxiety and weariness, our sorrow and suffering, hurt and hatred, greed and wrongful desire. Let us celebrate Christmas 2023 with a firm conviction of joy and peace as St. Paul convinced us in today's Second Reading: "Brothers and Sisters: Rejoice in the Lord always". -Fr. Joe Pham

OVEREATERS ANONYMOUS (OA) MEETING

Mondays at 6 PM, Room B, Ministry Center

A meeting could save a life. Is food a problem for you? OA can help. Compulsive eaters and those suffering from compulsive food behaviors are invited to a weekly meeting of Overeaters Anonymous from 6-7 PM in the Infant Jesus Parish Ministry Center, Room B, Woodbury Heights. Overeaters Anonymous is not a diet club. There are no dues, fees, or weigh-ins. The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop eating compulsively. OA views compulsive eating as a physical, emotional, and spiritual disease that can be arrested but not cured. Members seek recovery on all three levels by following a Twelve Step program patterned after Alcoholics Anonymous.

To find out more, go to oa.org or oa-southjersey.org, or call Bob at (856) 685-0019.
