Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This weekend we celebrate the Second Sunday of Easter which is also called Divine Mercy Sunday. Today's Gospel tells us that, after the resurrection, the Risen Christ appeared to his disciples and everyone was there except Thomas. The missing Thomas did not happen by chance but rather it was God's providence. Doubting Thomas indeed represents all generations to come. When he was told by his fellowmen that Jesus Christ came back to life and appeared to them, he responded: "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Thomas' demanding proof is providentially serving a two-fold-purpose: proof of the resurrection of Jesus Christ and of His Divine Mercy for humanity. When the Risen Christ appeared to His disciples again, this time Thomas was with them. Jesus invited Thomas to put his finger into His nail marks and put his hand into His side; surprisingly Thomas did not do it but rather he just cried out from the depth of his heart: "My Lord and my God!"

For Thomas, the evidence of the resurrection of Jesus was so overwhelming: Jesus was living. He was showing His crucified scars, and talking to him with the same caring voice and gentle way as Jesus was before. For this reason, instead of touching and examining the scars of Jesus, Thomas cried out "My Lord and my God" which implied: "My Lord and my God, please forgive my obstinate heart and my unbelief".

Indeed, the Risen Christ intended the nail marks and the scar from His side were, are, and will be forever signs of His Divine Mercy for Thomas and for all generations. Let us come to the Eucharistic Table to touch Jesus's scars and believe, to receive His Divine Mercy and be free from the bondage of sin.

- Fr. Joe Pham

During our meeting we discuss our successes and struggles as Catholic men as it relates to our daily battle to grow as men of God and be the leaders and protectors of our families that God created us to be. We hold each other accountable by confessing our weaknesses. We challenge each other to persevere with the help of God's grace in our ongoing struggle for masculine holiness.

OVEREATERS ANONYMOUS (OA) MEETING

Mondays at 6 PM, Room B, Ministry Center

A meeting could save a life. Is food a problem for you? OA can help. Compulsive eaters and those suffering from compulsive food behaviors are invited to a weekly meeting of Overeaters Anonymous from 6-7 PM in the Infant Jesus Parish Ministry Center, Room B, Woodbury Heights. Overeaters Anonymous is not a diet club. There are no dues, fees, or weigh-ins. The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop eating compulsively. OA views compulsive eating as a physical, emotional, and spiritual disease that can be arrested but not cured. Members seek recovery on all three levels by following a Twelve Step program patterned after Alcoholics Anonymous. To find out more, go to oa.org or oa-southjersey.org, or call Bob at (856) 685-0019.

REPORT SEXUAL ABUSE

An independent, toll-free number has been established by the Diocese of Camden to help callers report cases of sexual abuse by priests, deacons, religious, employees and/or volunteers.

Calls are handled by a licensed clinical social worker. In accord with state law, cases of child sexual abuse are reported to New Jersey Division of Child Protection & permanency & law enforcement.

For information or to inquire about counseling and support services, call 1-800-964-6588.
