Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In today's Gospel, Jesus gave us his heartfelt advice: "Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." Jesus spoke these words from the depth of his heart. He did not order us to do something if he himself didn't do it first. These are undeniable facts that we are all sinners, we all make mistakes, we all want to be forgiven, and we all want to be loved by God no matter how sinful we are.

Jesus knows who we are: sinful beings who sin, make mistakes, and fail everyday; however, he still loves each one of us unconditionally and forgives us unreservedly. The only thing he asks of us in return is to "love one another". However, in order to do this, we first need to be reminded and be in touch with our own sinfulness, our own unworthiness, and our own brokenness. It is easier for a drug addict to understand and sympathize for another drug addict than a clean person. It is easier for an adulterer to show mercy, and forgiveness for another adulterer than an ever faithful one.

Indeed, God's love cannot enter one's selfish heart who only wants to be forgiven and to be loved by God but does not want to forgive or to love others. This commandment of "love one another" means opening one's heart for forgiveness, for reconciliation, for healing, for conversion, for others' second chance to change, to come back, to restart again, and to rebuild one's life as Jesus does for us.

When keeping this commandment, we do not do any favors for the ones who receive our love; but rather we do a favor for ourselves as Jesus said: "forgive, and you will be forgiven, give and it will be given to you." (Mark 4:24). Therefore, let us forgive ourselves by forgiving one another. Let us love ourselves by loving one another so that "with what measure you measure, it will be measured back to you." (Luke 6:37).

Permanent Diaconate Information Session

The Office of the Diaconate is holding a meeting to provide information and answer questions concerning the life and ministry of a permanent deacon. If you, or someone you know, believe that Christ is calling you to serve the Church as a deacon please attend this meeting:

When: Tuesday, May 20th from 7:00 PM – 8:30 PM

Where: The Diaconate Center (133 N. 3rd St., Hammonton)

Who: Any man ages 30 – 55

Please confirm your attendance by calling the Diaconate Office (856-583-2858) or emailing Linda.decosta@camdendiocese.org.

PRAYER FOR PRIESTLY VOCATIONS

Lord Jesus, we ask you to bless the Diocese of Camden with an increase in vocations to the priesthood. We pray that young men from our parishes and families will hear your call and be both generous and courageous in their response. May more young men serve you as priests who teach the faith, preach the Gospel, celebrate the sacraments and make you present among us through their ministry. Encourage them to embrace the joy-filled and fulfilling life of a diocesan priest. May parents support priestly vocations in their families by prayer and good example. We entrust these prayers through Mary Immaculate, our patroness, hopeful that you will bless our diocese with more Priests in the near future, who live and reign forever and ever. Amen.
