Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

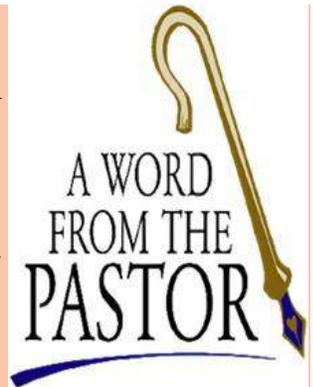

Living in a modern world today, everyone is so caught up with “material possessions”. How much is enough? Or will it ever be enough? This “illusion” is so prominent in our world today.

Today’s Gospel reminds us to be aware and conscious of this “deceptive illusion” which would either help us to “gain” eternal life or lose it. Whatever we own in this world, remember, it is a God-given blessing. Created things are entrusted to us, we do not own them. They belong to our Creator. Each one of us has been entrusted with a certain “amount” to possess for a certain period of time. At the end of this earthly journey, we must make a “report” to our Creator of how we used these worldly possessions. Jesus did not condemn those who try to work for material things in this world. He condemns those who seek material things as an end of life. Those who just spent their whole lives to “work” for this sole purpose which would reduce them to merely “material”.

As wise stewards of God’s creation, we should use our God-given blessings as a means to “gain” eternal life and happiness before our stewardship is taken away from us. The way to do this is:

“I tell you, make friends for yourselves with dishonest wealth, so that when it fails, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings”. (Luke 16:9).

Before it is too late, let us use this “dishonest wealth” to “buy” for ourselves the “heavenly life insurance”, to secure an everlasting place after this finite life is over. Let us make a “premium payment” to those in need around us: Those who need our loving care, our patience, our mercy and forgiveness, and our understanding and helping hands. Let us restore this earthly wealth not in this earthly place where rot and decay can destroy; but rather in the heavenly place where it cannot be rotted or destroyed. Let us be wise stewards who know how to invest the Master’s blessings entrusted to us to make an eternal “interest” in heaven. - Fr. Joe Pham
