PLEASE CALL THE RECTORY AT 856-848-0047 to RSVP OR EMAIL THEINFANTJESUSPARISH@COMCAST.NET

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

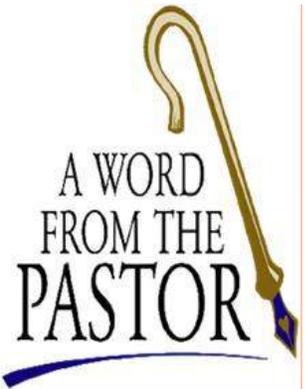

The Gospel today gives us a good moral lesson of why we should live out this moral principle in our lives: “Treat others as you would like to be treated”. The story begins: “There was a rich man who dressed in purple garments and fine linen and dines sumptuously each day. And lying at his door was a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who would gladly have eaten his fill of the scraps that fell from the rich man’s table.”

There is one thing in common between the rich and the poor men: they both died. The rich man was not rich forever and the poor was not poor forever. However, in the life after death, the rich man became “poor” forever and the poor man became “rich” forever. The rich man could be rich in both his earthly and heavenly “lives” but he missed the God-given opportunity when he was on earth. His destiny was controlled and decided by himself and not someone else.

The rich man’s problem was that although the poor man was lying at his door, he did not see him at all. He did not see the poor man because he did not pay attention, he did not pay attention because he did not need anything at that moment since he was rich. However, when in the netherworld “where he was in torment, he raised his eyes and saw Abraham far off and Lazarus at his side. And he cried out, Father Abraham, have pity on me.” At this time, the rich man was in dire need of help. Because of needing help, he then looked around, searched around and saw Lazarus whom he did not see before even though he was laying at his door everyday.

Let us look around, search around, to see if there are any “Lazarus” laying at our doors, living in our homes, eating at the same table or sleeping on the same bed with us. Take that opportunity to care for them before we end up in a place like the rich man in today’s Gospel.
