Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

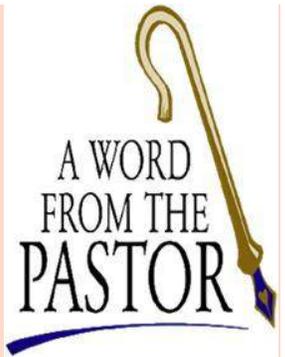

“If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, be uprooted and planted in the sea, and it would obey you.” said Jesus in today’s Gospel.

Through Baptism, the “seed” of faith in God, our Creator and Redeemer is planted in our lives. This “seed” of faith will not automatically grow “bigger” or stronger; but rather it needs to be “nurtured” every day in order to grow. Look at the lives of the saints. They nourished their faith through various means: prayer, contemplation, adoration, penance, fasting, acts of charity, sacrifice, perseverance, and patient endurance. The Saints received “equal amounts” of faith like every one of us at baptism. Why was their faith was so strong while ours is often weak and even shaken, especially in times of difficulty and trouble?

By nourishing their faith with the above means, the Saints were able to see things in this world through the eyes of God. They were able to recognize the divine presence in all worldly events, the divine providence in all situations of life, and the divine will in times of sorrow, suffering, distress, and even of death.

When Jesus said: “If you have faith the size of a mustard seed....” you would be able to move the mulberry tree. He was not exaggerating. Look at the faith of Abraham who still believed that God would make him the father of “many”; even his only son Isaac was asked to be sacrificed to God. By faith, St. Monica kept praying for 30 years for the conversion of her astray son, St. Augustine. Her faith was able to turn St. Augustine’s life around from a non-believer to a believer, a sinner to a great Saint.

We need to have faith in God when living in this unstable world to keep us stable. Faith will enable us to see things beyond this troubled world. Faith gives us hope when we are hopeless, peace when things seem to be falling apart, and strength when our body, mind, and spirit are lifeless. - Fr. Joe Pham

Considering Cremation: A Thoughtful Decision for Your Final Resting Place

While you may be considering cremation rather than traditional full-body burial, it's important to thoughtfully choose a final resting place for cremated remains. The Church earnestly recommends the pious custom of burying the bodies of the deceased. However, it does not forbid cremation -- unless it has been chosen for reasons which are contrary to Christian teaching. Cremated remains are the body of the deceased in a changed form, and as such, they should be treated with same respect and dignity as a full body. The Church teaches that cremated remains must be reverently buried or entombed in a sacred place reserved for the burial of the dead. When choosing cremation, several respectful and meaningful options are available, including:

Ground Burial U Granite or Glass Niches U Private Family Cremation Estates

U Placement in an Existing Family Lot, Crypt or Niche

These choices ensure that the remains are honored and remembered in a manner consistent with faith and tradition. Visit SouthJerseyCatholicCemeteries.org to learn more or call us at 855-MyPrePlan (855-697-7375) and a member of our staff will gladly assist you.

"And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself,
